

ADELMAN, Dorothy 25 Apr 1918 - 6 Sep 2007

Dorothy Adelman

89, passed away peacefully on September 6, 2007 and will be remembered affectionately as a loving mother ("Mom"), grandmother ("Mema"), great-grandmother (G.G. Mema) and friend. To her late husband, Stuart, she was the love of his life. To her children, she was always devoted. For her grandchildren, who have enjoyed her presence at every birthday, bar/bat mitzvah, wedding, graduation, and the like, she will be sorely missed, as will the futile efforts to beat her at Scrabble or cards and her delicious mandelbread and rum brownies. The family will think of her often as we warm ourselves with the afghans she lovingly crocheted for us. To those who knew her well, she was a deeply loyal friend, a skilled and avid game player, especially at cards and mah jongg, a voracious reader, and an enthusiastic Wildcat basketball fan. She also spent years volunteering at the Handmaker and TMC gift shops. The only child of William and Etta Lustig, she was born on April 25, 1918, in New York, NY. She moved to Tucson in 1971 with her husband, Stuart and mother, Etta, who preceded her in death. She is survived by her children, William Adelman and Joan (Edwin) Roth of Tucson; grandchildren, Lori (John) Tompkins of Weston, CT, Jeffrey (Holly) Roth of Phoenix, AZ, Debbie (Jonathan) Rosen of Brooklyn, NY, Drew Adelman of Irvine, CA, Stacy Adelman of Capistrano Beach, CA, Julie (Reed) Kiefer of Phoenix, AZ; and great-grandchildren Jay and Sammi Tompkins of Weston, CT and Isaac and Abbey Roth of Phoenix, AZ. A graveside service will be held on Sunday, September 9, 2007 at 8:00 a.m. at the EVERGREEN CEMETERY & MORTUARY.
