

Arizona Daily Star
28 Feb 2006 pg B2

BYNUM, Floyd O.
12 Jul 1909 - 26 Feb 2006

BYNUM, Floyd O., born July 12, 1909, passed away February 26, 2006. Floyd was born in Lone Jack, MO. He moved to Tucson in 1952 where he owned and operated a Signal gas station, then later an Exxon until he retired to care for his beloved wife Pearl until her passing in 1985. Pearl was the love of his life. He loved and missed her dearly for the rest of his life. Floyd had a long, interesting life including a friendship with then future president Harry S. Truman. Grandpa, you will be missed. He is preceded in death by his wife of over 60 years, Pearl Bynum and his dear sister, Lorene Bynum. He is survived by his daughters, Leonora (Jack) Hendrix of Tucson, Lavonne Pollard of South Gate, CA; son, Floyd W. (Maxine) Bynum of Lone Jack, Mo; seven grandchildren, Robert, Kenneth and Elaine Hendrix of Tucson, Barbra and Dean Pollard of CA, Michael and Greg Bynum of MO; 13 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. Visitation will be held 6:00-8:00 p.m., Friday, March 3, 2006 at EAST LAWN PALM MORTUARY.