

Jane Wilson Dunlop
"Betty"

Betty died peacefully at home surrounded by her family during a welcome monsoon on July 5, 2007. She was born in Palo Pinto, Texas on October 30, 1922 to Stella and Randall Wilson and attended Texas Women's University and the University of Texas. In 1942, Betty married Captain Donald Dunlop at the Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells, Texas. For the next 30 years they lived all over the world with their five children. This included assignments to Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Germany.

In 1971, Betty and Don moved to Tucson where for years they enjoyed tennis at Quail Valley Tennis Club, gardening, quilting, Skyline Women's Club, Great Decisions, and St. Philips in the Hills Episcopal Church. Betty enjoyed life-long learning and continued her travels to Europe, China, India, Egypt, the Panama Canal as well as visits to New York and Montana to visit her children and grandchildren.

Betty was preceded in death by her beloved Don in 2004, and is survived by her brother John T. Wilson; five children, Jane (late William) Gorman, NY, Nancy (Steve) Dunlop Cawdrey, MT, Tom Dunlop, CA, Sarah (Ed) Childers, AZ, Elizabeth "Biz" Dunlop, AZ; 12 grandchildren, Billy, Patrick, Courtney, Matthew, Sarah, Ryan, and Emily Gorman; Morgan Dunlop Cawdrey; Ryan, Dan, Andrea, and Katie Childers; two great-grandchildren, Riley and Amelia.

A memorial service will be held in October at St. Philip's in the Hills.
