Over the last several years her love for travel had taken her and Jim to many different countries overseas as well as many states here at home. Her love for reading inspired her to volunteer time at Laguna Elementary school with children who were struggling with reading. She was not only a tutor but became a friend to those she worked with. She was a strong woman who touched many lives with friendship, generosity and love. She died young but will live on through her children and grandchildren. A funeral service will be held Thursday, September 27, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. at ADAIR FUNERAL HOME, Avalon Chapel, 8090 N. Northern Ave. at Magee.
