James Lance Fisher

61 of Tucson, passed away on September 10, 2007. Born on March 19, 1946 in Plattsburgh, NY, Lance moved to Tucson over 30 years ago and from that day forward considered Tucson home. Lance worked as a land surveyor until his retirement just one year ago. A music and NASCAR fan, Elvis and Richard Petty both fought for space on the walls of his home. Lance is survived by his devoted daughter, Shelby; his mother, Muriel; and his sisters, Brenda and Jennifer. Lance was also blessed with a large extended family, as well as many friends who made his passing easier. A private memorial service for family will take place later this year. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Hermitage Cat Shelter, where Lance was an active volunteer. Hermitage Cat Shelter, 5278 E. 21st Street, Tucson, AZ 85711.
