

The Lake County Historical Society cordially invites you to...

A Celebration of Northeast Ohio Lives and Book Launch Party

with heritage writer

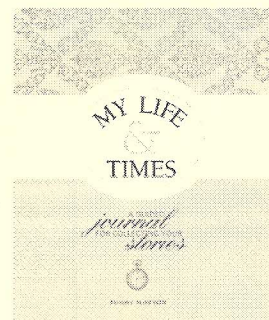

Sunny McClellan Morton

Friday, October 21, 2011

5:30 Reception/Book-signing; 6:30 Program

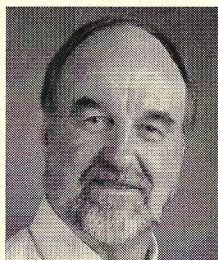

Lake County History Center, 415 Riverside Dr., Painesville

- Please join us in celebrating the release of Sunny's new book, My Life & Times: A Guided Journal for Collecting Your Stories.
- Enjoy a brief program honoring the value of everyone's personal and family stories. Speakers will include the author and two guests who have been telling northeast Ohioans' stories for years (see below).
- Copies of My Life and Times will be available for purchase at a special launch party price. Pick up a signed copy for yourself and additional copies for loved ones whose stories you value (complimentary gift wrapping will be available).

About the Author. Sunny McClellan Morton grew up in Chesterland, Ohio and now lives in Euclid. Sunny is the editor of Ohio Genealogy News (beginning 2012). She writes a regular column and frequent feature articles for Family Tree Magazine. She contributes to the Expert Series at www.Archives.com and teaches an eight-week intensive online family history writing class for Family Tree University. Learn more about her at www.sunnymorton.com; subscribe to her blog at www.yourlifein5minutes.com to receive weekly life-story writing prompts and tips.

About the Book. Everyone has a story—actually, many stories. My Life & Times helps readers write theirs. Memory-prompting questions guide readers through the writing process. Expert advice helps readers jog their memories and handle sensitive topics as well as happy ones. A collaborative format allows for inclusion of others' voices. Tabbed sections and gorgeously-designed pages in black and pale gold capture life's unique timeline and experiences in timeless, keepsake-quality style.

Ted Diadiun is a longtime Cleveland newspaper who started as sports writer at the Painesville Telegraph. He has been sports editor and executive editor at the News Herald and is now the Plain Dealer's Reader Representative.

Rick Jackson hosts TV programs on WVIZ/PBS and is the voice for 90.3 WCPN's Morning Edition. Clevelanders also knew him in the past as a news anchor for WOIO and WUAB TV, and a news reporter for WKYC TV.
