Aug. 7, 1862

The patriotic citizens of Chester—which township has sent more volunteers than any other in Geauga—have raised a fund sufficiently large to give every volunteer from their town under the new call a bounty of one hundred dollars.

War Meetings

War Meetings have been and are being held in different parts of the our county, and we understand they have been well attended and the greatest enthusiasm and best spirit has been manifested at all of them. But still enlisting under the recent call goes on slowly. The indications at this writing are that drafting will be resorted to within the next fifteen days—to take the place of volunteering. We trust the necessity will not arise in Lake Co. for a drafting officer—but it will, unless we are more active in recruiting.

Enrolling the Militia

The Township Assessors are now enrolling the Militia of the State, which includes all white male citizens over 18 and under 45. The law imposes a penalty of $10 upon boarding-house and hotel keepers refusing to give information to Assessors, and the refusal of anyone to give correct information or his true name, shall forfeit and pay a like sum.

Drafting - Men of Lake Co. remember that when drafting begins the bounty ceases.

Officers of the 105th Regt. elected by the Regimental Committee at their meeting in Cleveland:

Colonel – A. S. Hall, Trumbull Co.

Lt. Col. – Wm. R. Tolles, Geauga Co.

Major – Geo. Perkins, Mahoning Co.

Quarter-Master – M. W. Wright, Ashtabula Co.

Adjutant – A. M. Robbins, Trumbull Co.

Chaplin – A. M. Brown, Lake Co.

Surgeon – Dr. H. Brinkerhoff, Lake Co.

Asst. Surgeon – Dr. H. G. Taft, Ashtabula Co.

There will be a War Meeting at Wilson's Corners, Concord, Saturday, Aug. 9.

Military Committee: John H. Murray
Moses S. Harvey, Truman Rust

We ask that every person who can will send blackberries to the Aid Rooms where they will be canned and sent to our army. Little boys and girls you, too, can pick berries and send in, and by doing so, render essential service to your country.

Carrie C. Mathews, Sec. (Soldier's Aid Society)

The Hundred and Fifth – Col. Hall, of the 105th, who has the marks of Shiloh on his person, is in the city. We are gratified to learn that he has now some 600 volunteers enrolled and expects his regiment will be filled the present week. Over 400 are ready to march to Camp Cleveland and will do so as soon as the Camp arrangements are completed. Col. Hall is raising his Regt. in the counties of Lake, Ashtabula, Geauga, Trumbull, and Mahoning; and they bid fair to furnish the first full Regt. in Ohio of 300,000. The honor will be nobly won. Cleveland Herald

A new battery called the 19th Ohio is being raised from the counties of Cuyahoga, Lorain, Erie, Huron, Lake, Geauga, and Ashtabula. Capt. Joseph C. Shields will be the commander. The complement of men will be 156.

105th Ohio V.I. 45 Men Wanted The Last Chance!

$13 first month's pay in advance

$ 2 enlistment money

$25 one-fourth of govt. bounty

$50 county bounty

$ 90 in all paid as soon as mustered in at Camp Cleveland

$75 paid at expiration of enlistment

Pay from $13 - $22 per month

Lieut. Shepherd and Sergt. Smalley are the recruiting officers of the 7th Regiment.

At the late battle of Cedar Mountain, the Ohio 7th was as usual foremost in the fight and met with heavy loss—57 killed and wounded out of 300 engaged. Our Lake County Co. D had 6 men wounded: Corp. Norman L. Norris, Corp. Laurence Wilson, and Privates Norton B. Holcomb, Wallace Lapham, Chas. Hettinger, and John A. Frank. In Co. F. 29th Ohio, S. E. Balch and George Neno were wounded. There were none killed in either company according to the report. In the bloody battle the 7th and the 19th Regiments, the pride of the Western Reserve, fully maintained the high reputation they won at Winchester and Port Republic. The reports of the battle speak in high terms of their bravery and veteran coolness.

Our printers (Telegraph) in the Army

We believe there are few weekly newspapers in the country that have furnished more men for the army than our own: The follow are the names:

- V. E. Smalley, Sergeant 7th Ohio
- Mason Jackson, Sergeant 15th U.S. Regulars
- Herbert L. Smalley, 7th Ohio
- Frank Stanley, 7th Ohio
- George J. Buys, 7th Ohio
- Wm. Barnes, 7th Ohio
- F. M. Strong, Wetmore's Battery
- Henry F. Canfield, 105th Ohio

Col. Creighton, of the gallant Seventh, was wounded at Cedar Mountain.

New volunteers enlisted by Lieut. Donaldson for the 52nd Regt. and left Painesville for Camp Chase Tuesday:

- W. E. Clayton
- H. G. Treat

- W. W. Titus
- C. N. Wheeler
- T. H. Clark
- John Baldwin
- W. H. Custin

Notwithstanding the distracted condition of the country, we hope our agricultural friends, and all others will remember the County Fair, Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1.

A telegraphic dispatch from Gov. Tod was received here last Wednesday evening requesting that all armed men that could be raised be immediately sent to Cincinnati to defend the city from the attack of rebels. By Thursday evening, thirty-five from Windsor and Hartsgrove, Ashtabula Co., arrived in Painesville. On the same evening a company from Burton commanded by Hon. Peter Hitchcock marched into town. On Friday a group from Madison came on the train and were joined by others here—enough to make a full and first-rate company. Samuel W. Phelps was elected Capt. of the Company. All started on the 2:00 train for Cincinnati where they arrived at 4 a.m. the next morning. But Kirby Smith hearing of the large number of "squirrel hunters" as the Cincinnati papers call the minutemen, turned their backs on Cincinnati. The company arrived back home about 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Died in Madison Aug. 30, Cyrus Cunningham, age 75. The deceased was a native of Plainfield, Mass. In 1811, he and his family with his father, mother, and one brother, came and settled in Madison. His wife soon died and in 1814, he married Mary W. Crary, and they were married for nearly half a century. Cyrus Cunningham taught the first winter school in Madison, and Mrs. Mary W. Cunningham, the first summer school. She taught in her own house a school of twelve students being all that lived within two miles either way of them—and as they had to travel through woods, each family sent a large dog with their children to protect them from the wild beasts that prowled around at that early day. She died March 5, 1858. Cyrus fought in 1812. He was for many years a Justice of the Peace. In 1821, they buried their only son then nearly 6 years old and, little Edwin, they never ceased to mourn.

Sept. 18, 1862

From the 2nd Ohio, Fort Scott, Kansas Sept. 2, 1862:

Since our return from the Indian Territory, two of the best men of our company have died in consequence of the hardships which they endured in that dreary desolate land. Private Cyrus S. Storey, of Mentor, died in the Post Hospital at Fort Scott, Aug. 11. Private Daniel Hartman, of Nelson, Portage Co., died in the Regimental Hospital on Aug. 12. Both were buried with military honors. Their disease was a species of brain fever which has defied the skill of our surgeons and carried off 20 or 30 members of this Regiment since our return. Lieut. Albert Barnitz, Commanding Co. G., 2nd O.V.C.

Apples for the Hospitals

It should immediately be published as widely as possible that dried apples cannot be sent to its depots in too large quantities. Town and village relief societies are requested to make arrangements for paring, cutting, and drying by their members. Dried apples may be sent in barrels or boxes, or in strong bags marked "to be kept dry." Dried fruits of other kinds and all good canned fruits will be very acceptable.

A Letter Home from a Volunteer

We have a communication from the wife of a Volunteer who enlisted in 1861 complaining bitterly because the families of the volunteers have been neglected. We clip from her communication:

“You know what promises were made and what assurances [were] given these men before they left that their families should be comfortably provided for in their absence; and you know how these promises have been kept. I do at least. For a year they have not received a dollar for any source, except that which they have received from their husbands, and that is not half enough to support them, with three or four little children. Look at the difference between the pay of the officer and the private; while the latter has all the hardship to endure—all the tramping—all the fighting—all the poor living. The officer goes and comes where and when he pleases and lives high with his pay of thousands a year; and this is not the worst of it; many of them are drunken scamps—but the men must obey if they fall down and die in trying to do so. You may think I write bitterly; I feel so; for while our husbands are suffering everything but death, and many of them even that, their families are many of them suffering at home for the necessities of life.”

We notice among the wounded of the 105th, and who have been transferred from Lebanon to Louisville, the names of H. Bailey, Co. D; Eugene Hayden and Charles Starkin, Co. E. The following members of the 105th have been discharged from service since the 20th instant:
Arthur L. Brum, Co. F. Willoughby
Asa B. Drake, Co. F., Montville
Wm. H. Dart, Co. D, Richmond
M. J. Bentley, Co. D, Painesville

Oct. 30, 1862

Married in Madison on the 23rd instant, Mr. Alanson Bailey and Miss Flavia E. Bond, both of Madison.

Married Madison, Mr. Samuel F. Atwood, of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Miss Susan J. Van Every, of Madison.

Murder of Henry B. Goodrich

We were shocked to hear of the terrible death of Henry B. Goodrich, of Chicago, a conductor on the r.r, murdered by ruffians. We knew Mr. G many years ago when he lived in Brownhelm, Lorain Co. His father was one of the early settlers of Brownhelm. The deceased has a sister at Lake Erie Female Seminary in this village.

We are sorry to record the death of Levi C. Brown, post surgeon at Camp Chase, Columbus. He died last Thursday of typhoid fever. He was a brother of Thos. Brown, late of the Ohio Farmer. He was about 28 years of age.

A description of the funeral services which were held in Child's Hall Friday afternoon over the bodies of Eugene Brooks and Moses Kerr.

Among the deaths in Alexandria, Va., we notice that of Seth M. Ackley of Capt. Barnett's Co., 35th Regt. N.Y.S.V. formerly of Willoughby.

Mr. Nelson Akins, who left here a month or two ago as an army nurse died in the hospital at Louisville, Ky., last Saturday of typhoid fever. His remains were brought here for interment. He was about 22 years old. He leaves a widow, a mother, and two sisters.

Oyster Cans!

The ladies of the Aid Society want all the oyster cans they can get to be used for fruits for our soldiers. The covers of the cans should be removed using hot coals, and the cans cleaned and dried immediately.

p. 3 William E. Clayton, of the 52nd Ohio, has been discharged from service and is now at home confined with rheumatism. He enlisted last August.

Painesville has sold 190 horses to the government in the last month.

Mr. Henry Williams, of LeRoy, recently enlisted in Capt. Barber's sharpshooters and has proved himself to be a marksman of no ordinary merit. In a recent trial of skill he put 14 balls in a target 6" in diameter at a distance of 40 rods. Capt. Barber's Co., is now at Berea but expects soon to enter the army with telescope rifles.

We were saddened to learn of the death of Eliza A. Phelps, second daughter of Rev. A. Phelps, formerly Rector of St. James Church in this village, age 18 yrs., 8 mos. Miss Phelps had been at Lake Erie Female Seminary for the last two years where she has three sisters—one, the eldest, a teacher there. She died while on a visit to her friends in Greensburg, Trumbull Co., on the 12th instant of hemorrhage of the lungs. Her father and stepmother reside at Fremont, Ohio.

The annual Thanksgiving gathering of friends and patrons of Lake Erie Female Seminary passed off very pleasantly. The Chapel was handsomely decorated with evergreens and mottoes graced the walls—over the door of the Chapel "Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness," —over our National Flag "God speed the right," —on the arch "Our rest is above," —on the walls "Labor omnia Vincit," and "Amor et fides." A harp in the Chapel on the piano, draped in black having a broken string, with the name "Eliza," with the words "She sings in Heaven," was a touching memorial of the death of one of the scholars, Miss Eliza A. Phelps.

Shinplasters are not legal money—It seems not to be generally known that we have a law in Ohio which makes it an offence to issue or circulate any note or bill to circulate as money, passed Nov. 15, 1845.

Skating parties are the order of the day, the recent severe cold weather has put the river in good condition and large numbers are enjoying themselves skating.

The Fairport ladies had a festival and raised $10.02 for the benefit of the soldiers' families. This is one more substantial proof of the active interest which the ladies of Fairport take in the welfare of brave soldiers and their families. The contributions from Fairport and vicinity have been valuable and liberal since the Rebellion began, and they continue to respond to every new call.
