p. 3 Twenty-three years ago on the 4th instant a destructive tornado, accompanied with hail and rain and vivid flashes of lightning and severe claps of thunder passed over a considerable portion of this county. In Mentor quite a number of houses were blown down together with many barns and outbuildings. In some places timber was completely leveled with the ground. The only death record was that of a child in the in Kirtland, killed by the falling of a chimney. Many of the houses in Painesville were left without a pane of glass on the side on which the storm approached. Today we have nearly a foot of snow, good sleighing and very comfortable winter weather.

Madison Items

The past year has been remarkable in this township for its death of old people. The record probably not a full one, shows more old men dying than women. Our village bell has tolled for the following since last Jan., 1864:

John Davis, age 68
Hiram Grant, 68
Abraham Van Epps, 43
William Antisdell, 57
Justus A. Barnes, 77
Caleb W. Ensign Jr., 41
William Lyman, 71
Cyrus Ingersoll, 37
Frederick Smead, 48
Rebecca Talcott, 83
Sherman Dayton, age 78
Roxana Dodge, 35
Orris Blair, 45
Sidney Brewster, 64
Mrs. A. Woodworth, 43
O. C. Loveridge, 43
Gaius Hitchcock, 42
Abner Smead, 81
Asaph Ely, 76
Nathan Wood, 84

In other parts of the township have been buried:

p. 2 Great Triumph! General Lee has surrendered the remains of the Army of Northern Virginia to General Grant. The men and officers to go to their homes and officers to retain their private baggage and side arms.

President Lincoln had a reception the other day at the late residence of Jeff Davis at Richmond.

It was only a few weeks since this mansion was the headquarters of treason.

Gen. G. W. C. Lee – This rebel General captured at Burkesville by Sheridan is the second son of Gen. Robert E. Lee, Commander-In-Chief of the rebel armies. Gen. Robert E. Lee had three sons in the rebel army: Gen G. W. C. Lee, age about 33, who was educated at West Point, William H. Fitzhugh Lee, a farmer who has been reported killed last week at Five Forks, age 17 years, and Robert E. Lee, 20 years of age. The latter was taught in a military school in Virginia. There are three other children surviving—daughters. None of the children are married but Fitzhugh Lee. Gen. R. E. Lee is the son of Gen. Henry Lee, of Revolutionary memory.

p. 3 Weather: The first thunderstorm of the season visited us on Tuesday night. Rain in great abundance fell.

Rejoicing - The whole North is still stirred with rejoicings over the late grand successes of our armies. From enumerable cities, towns, and villages, we have accounts of illuminations, ringing of bells, firing of cannon, and all manner of joyful demonstrations.

Evergreen Cemetery - We were astonished in a recent visit to this quiet and beautiful resting place of the dead, to find so many re-interments of old friends and relatives exhumed from the old cemetery.

p. 2 Appalling National Calamity! The Nation Mourns! Abraham Lincoln was assassinated at Ford's Theater in Washington last Friday night. J. Wilkes Booth age 27, son of the celebrated Junius Brutus Booth who died in 1852, was the leading conspirator. There was a conspiracy to assassinate every member of the cabinet along with the President.

Apr. 20, 1865

Attempted Assassination of Sec. Seward

About the same time the President was shot, a man came into Sec. Seward's bedroom while he was asleep and stabbed him two or three times in the throat and twice in the face. The nurse alarmed Mr. Frederick Seward, who was in the adjoining room. He hastened to his father's room where he met the assassin who inflicted wounds upon him. The recovery of Frederick Seward is doubtful. It is not probable the President will live through the night.

Later – Abraham Lincoln died at 22 minutes after 7 o'clock. E. M. Stanton, Sec. of War

p. 3 The Country in Mourning!

Sorrow Apparent Everywhere

Mayor Steele very properly issued a Proclamation requesting the suspension of business and a public meeting to be held at 3 o'clock p.m. to give expression to the feeling of ours citizens concerning the assassination of President Lincoln.

The day of Lincoln's funeral all the businesses in Painesville were closed, all the hotels were draped in mourning as was main St. with black and white cambric and crepe. The churches were draped and many offices and dwellings showed signs of mourning. The body of President Lincoln will pass through this village en route to its last resting place in Springfield, Ill.

p. 2 The President's Family

Hon. Andrew Johnson, President of the U.S., is age 56. His family resides in Nashville, Tenn. and consists of his wife and four children-- two sons and two daughters. This son, Robert, is 29, and Andrew Johnson Jr. is 12 years old. His two daughters with their families, also, reside in Nashville having been driven from their homes in East Tennessee. One of Mr. Johnson's sons, Charles, a surgeon in the army was thrown from his horse in 1863 and killed, and Col. Stover, a son-in-law, commanding the 4th Regt. of Tenn. Infantry was killed in the battle of Nashville, Dec. 18, 1864. Judge Patterson, who is, also, a son-in-law of the President, lives in Nashville. Mrs. Johnson has been in very delicate health for some time past, and it is probably Mrs. Col. Stover will preside over the Presidential household.

p. 3 On the 6th instant, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moodey celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. Moodey is among the oldest settlers of Painesville now living.

Weather: The weather Saturday and Sunday was cold and gloomy and on Sunday night we had quite a sprinkle of snow.

Died of typhoid fever, April 20, Mrs. Eunice H. Palmer, wife of Judge J. Palmer, and only daughter of, Judge M. and Mrs. N. A. Harris, age 44. Mrs. Palmer was a native of this village where she has always resided.

Died of starvation and neglect in Salisbury Prison, Jan. 24, 1865, Horatio Storrs, eldest son of Jesse and Harriet Storrs, of Painesville. He was a member of the 10th Co. O.V.S.S. that left here scarcely a year since. His last words to his wife when parting were: "God will be with me there as well as here."

John W. Wilbur Esq., of Huron, Erie Co., Ohio, died April 18, age about 57 years.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moodey of this village, was celebrated on the 6th instant. One sister and three brothers of Mrs. Moodey were present: Mrs. Mary Gray; William, Daniel, and Levi Kerr Esqs., who with one exception were present at the home of the father, Moses Kerr in Mentor, then Geauga Co., at the wedding of Robert Moodey and Margaret Kerr, April 6, 1815. The local whereabouts of this scene 50 years ago is now the home of Robert Murray Esq. The first four years of their married life was spent in Pennsylvania on the farm originally the residence of Seth Marshall. Only one of their seven children has died: Mrs. C. A. Avery. The other six were all present save Mr. M. K. Moodey, of New York. Of the family relations, Capt. J. B. Kilbourne, a son-in-law was, also, absent on duty to his country with the victorious army of Gen. Sherman. Samuel Moodey is the oldest son.

M. Brockway fitted up a room in the rear of his shaving saloon for Hot and Cold Baths. This is a necessity Painesville has long felt, and we have not doubt "Brock" will be well patronized by those seeking such a luxury.

Gen. Casement, as soon as the war was over, resigned and is now home.

Jeff Davis was captured at Irvinville, Ga., by the 4th Michigan Cavalry. A salute was fired in commemoration of the capture. It is said Jeff when taken was disguised in one of his wife's dresses. Thus, attired he ran into the forest, where, on being brought to bay, he drew a bowie knife and flourished it at his pursuers.

Mrs. Chesney, President of the Soldiers Aid Society, was presented with a splendid Bradbury piano. Mrs. Chesney has been untiring in her efforts on behalf of the soldiers, working for the last 4 years—and this present was made by our citizens.

Hortensius J. Paine Esq. died May 7, about age 40. He was the son of Gen. James N. Paine and brother of Hon. Byron Paine, who came to this city about 1847 we think. (Milwaukee Sentinel). He left a widow and three children.

A young lady, of Cleveland, named Adeline Grieshaber, who had been seduced, hung herself in jail where she had been confined for theft last Saturday.

p. 3 Day of Humiliation and Prayer

Last Thursday in compliance with the Proclamation of President Johnson and Gov. Brough, was very generally observed in this village as a day of humiliation and prayer.

The 105th Ohio arrived at Cleveland last Monday and were given a grand public reception by the people of that city. The Regt. was mustered out of service at Washington and nothing now remains but to pay them off. The men composing the 105th Regt. belong to Lake, Mahoning, Trumbull and Ashtabula Counties and were mustered in Aug. 20 and 21, 1862.

The Regt. left Cleveland over 1,000 strong. The Regiment fought at Perryville, Melton, Tenn.; Hoover's Gap, Tenn; Chickamauga, Mission Ridge, Resacca, and Jonesboro. Originally part of the Army of the Cumberland, it was transferred to Sherman's 14th Corp and made the march "down to the sea."

Death comes to the family of Robert Murray, of Chardon. The wife and mother, Eliza E. Murray, daughter of John Corlett, of Concord, died of brain fever on May 9, being sick only 1 week. She was 35 years old leaving two little children, Johnny and Emma, and her husband.

Married June 3rd, at the parsonage in Madison, Mr. Wilbur H. Gaylor and Miss Laura M. Bourn, of Perry, Lake Co., Ohio.

p. 3 Little Mountain

A writer in the Christian Advocate, traveling through this section, thus, writes of the natural scenery, & c. of our county: Five miles south of Painesville is Little Mountain. It rises gradually eight hundred feet above the lake. About 50 acres, covered with tall pines, chestnut, and mosses, embraces the summit. The mountain is literally hollow. There are ledges, and caves, and crevices and subterranean halls.

Here three neat little hotels cozily rise among the pines, a dozen villas about, one is possessed by Ex. Governor Tod. But the rocks! Massive orators of God! They are conglomerate and of marble, pebble, iron, and silica base. One rock has been carried by the original explosion fifty rods, and by its fall was severed into six parts, each as large as a barn.

Near Little Mountain is the village of Kirtland, built long ago by the Mormons. Here a magnificent Temple stands.

Death of Capt. Scribner Huntoon

Mr. Huntoon died last Thursday. He was a native of New Hampshire, born in 1783. At the age of 34 he came to Ohio and settled at Concord. He was 45 days on the road with his family---having only an ox team to transport them. The day he was buried, last Saturday, it was just 48 years since he first settled on his farm where he lived and died. He was elected and served as Commissioner of Lake Co. for one or two terms. The first vote he ever cast was for Thomas Jefferson for President. During the War of 1812 he commanded a company in New Hampshire, but resigned and enlisted as a private and served his country faithfully. He leaves an aged wife and seven children (daughters) all living and married.
