Correction – In our report of the premiums awarded at the late Lake Co. Agricultural Soc. Fair, it appeared that Mrs. J. B. Hopkins exhibited and won a prize for a woven silk curtain that had been entered at a previous fair. All items must be manufactured within the current year to be entered. We are satisfied of the fact this curtain was woven this year by Mrs. Hopkins and can be proved. Geo. A. Bates, Secretary

Decision in the Fishery Case -Last year a State Law was passed to tax all fisherman for nets, seines, & C. used in the waters of Lake Erie. The fisherman of Fairport refused to pay and under the Leadership of Post, Durfee, et al secured an injunction in the Probate court last Oct. restraining L. K. Buntain for collecting it, on the ground that the tax was illegal. The question was submitted to Judge Sherman. He has ruled that the tax is unconstitutional and made the injunction to restrain the State Commission and State Warden perpetual. The Judge's reasoning for his decision took two hours to deliver. As the case was intended to be a test case, it will now be taken to the Circuit Court, and if sustained there, will go to the Supreme Court for final judgement.

Jan. 2, 1890

Long Ago – Mr. Charles Smart, Washington St., has renewed his subscription to the Telegraph for the 56th time. He was an early businessman of Painesville, then moved on to Fairport when that place was prosperous from the steam boating before the days of railroading. Mentioned is the Bigler Mills plant that is on the Main Street hill in Painesville.

Mr. James Wright, of Leroy, is another old and esteemed patron of the Telegraph. He came to Ohio in 1810. He is now 88 yrs. old.

p. 1 Virginia – A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to allow women to practice law in Virginia. The members seem to be about equally divided on it. Senator Moore said: “There are too many lawyers now. The ladies ought to wait until more business increases.” Some years ago, the County Court of Fairfax admitted Mrs. Belva Lockwood to practice, and I believe this was the first time a woman was allowed to practice law in this State. It was brought up that often in the production of testimony before juries matters often come up which are embarrassing and unseemly for ladies to take part in. The fight is waxing warm.

p. 2 The la grippe is all over the country and many fatal cases are reported. It has become a large business hindrance in cities and some manufacturing establishments have been temporarily closed due to the illness of the employees. In nearly all parts of Europe, the disease is epidemic, and to a great degree infectious.

Mahoning Co. Agricultural Fair Officers elected:
Pres. Frank M. Moore
V.P. J. King Wilson
Sec. Ensign N. Brown
Treas. Hugh A. Manchester
The fair will be the first week of October.

An open winter in this climate means much more than just the absence of cold weather. It means the almost sure destruction of fruit; a large injury to wheat, the loss of the maple sugar industry as well as a failure of the ice crop which has become almost a necessity as well as a luxury. It will prevent the usual cutting and hauling of logs and wood, and other work that requires at least hard ground, if not snow.

Mr. George Abbey, of LeRoy, is one of the old settlers who have recently called at the Telegraph office. He is 84 yrs. old.

An excursion train will run from Ashtabula and all intermediate stations on Friday for the play the "Old Homestead" at the Cleveland Opera House.

Painesville Water Supply

The discussions have been going on a long time of where to locate the wells in the lake for the Painesville water supply. Visiting Fairport, the council members carefully explored the coast. On the west of the Grand River the waters of the Mentor Marsh percolate into the waters of Lake Erie. But farther up, about a mile from the lifesaving station on the land of Mr. J. W. Titus, a bluff cuts off the marsh water and has ample space for sinking wells. It is believed this discovery solves the perplexing problem of Painesville's water supply.

June 5, 1890

Woman's Home for Army Nurses and Soldiers' Widows was dedicated by the Woman's Relief Corps at Madison last Thursday. More than 2,000 people were there. The old seminary, boarding hall and grounds were originally owned by James Ford, now deceased. People of Madison and Geneva and neighboring towns raised $3,300, of which $1,600 was spent for the land and $1,700 for repairs. Painesville had a share in this benevolent object.

The article describes a brief historical sketch of the old seminary which appeared in a school paper of Nov., 1877. The first term of the Seminary was taught by Mr. C. S. Hartwell in the spring of 1847. The next year, there were 100 students being instructed by Mr. G. N. Campbell. He then went as a missionary to Burma. Rev. S. R. Darien and wife took his place. In 1857, two ladies were in control of the school, Miss Smith, a graduate of Ingham, and Miss Chadwick, of Willoughby College, now Mrs. Dr. Wm. H. Sherwood, of Painesville. In 1859, a new brick seminary was completed, and the old one fitted up as a boarding hall.

Laura Kerr Axtell

Laura Kerr was born in Mentor Dec. 22, 1818. Feb. 19, 1839, she married to Salmon B. Axtell, an honorable lawyer. Mr. Axtell died at Copper Harbor, Lake Superior, on Aug. 20th, 1861. For nearly 13 yrs., Mrs. Axtell has been an invalid. Since her return to Painesville in the fall of 1882, her home has been a social center. Over $100,00 was given by her to found the Kerr professorship at Case School of Applied Science, in memory of her brother. St. James Episcopal Church, of this place, was refitted, and a parish house, built by her at a cost of $12,000.

A poem is printed that was written by Mary J. Cravens "One Year Ago."

Lake County – Comparison of population in the 1870, 1880, and 1890 censuses, by township.

Almost all the townships decreased in population since 1880. (Probably all the westward movement.)

Lake County Totals:

1870	18,044
1880	16,338
1890	15,935

Biographical Sketch of Hon. William W. Corlett

The Cheyenne Dailey Leader, of Wyoming, printed the following sketch of a former Lake Co. boy, Hon. William W. Corlett, who at the time of his death last July, had risen to the position of leader of the state bar and was one of Wyoming's foremost statesmen:

William W. Corlett was a native of Concord, Ohio, born April 10, 1842. He was 48 yrs. old at the time of his death. He spent his early life on a farm and in the winter attended the district schools. In 1859, he began teaching school in his native town and continued to teach the winter seasons for three years. During this time, he attended the Willoughby Collegiate Institute in Willoughby, O., where he completed his education. In 1861, at age 20, he entered the army and remained about 3 weeks in the 28th Regt. Ohio Volunteers. He then joined the volunteer service of the 87th Regt. Ohio Volunteers, a three-months' regiment commanded by Col. Henry B. Banning. This regiment was sent to Shenandoah Valley and remained in service until Sept. 15, when the entire command was captured at Harper's Ferry. After being paroled by the Confederates, Mr. Corlett returned to Ohio, and resumed teaching in Kirtland and Painsville. He learned he had been exchanged as a prisoner of war and at once decided to re-enter the army, this time joining the 25th Ohio battery and went to Arkansas, where he was placed on detached service with the 3rd Iowa battery and served with this company until the close of the war.

In 1865, Mr. Corlett returned to Ohio, and began the study of law at the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, then at the Ohio and Union Law College, of Cleveland. He graduated in July 1866 and was admitted to the bar. In July, 1867, he came west finally locating at Cheyenne, arriving here Aug. 20, 1867, and engaged in the practice of his profession. In 1869, he was the Republican candidate for delegate in congress. In 1869, he was appointed Postmaster in Cheyenne and in 1871, he was chosen to the upper house of the legislature; then prosecuting attorney until 1875. He was a member of the legislative council in 1882.

Willoughby - Prof. Merrick and family, of Wilmington, arrived here last week and are at Mr. C. R. Chapman's.

Dr. Geo. P. Holmes, of St. Louis, Mo. spent several days here with relatives.

Mayor Clement, of Wichita, Kan., made a short visit to our village last week.

Married – Stephens/Baker

At the residence of Justin Snow, Euclid avenue, Cleveland, O., Aug. 20, Mr. Alva Stephens and Miss Ledah Baker, both of Gilman, Ill.

John Blackmore has opened a Repair Shop in the oil cloth bindery factory over C. T. Morley's marble works. He will repair all kinds of light machinery: Lawn mowers, bicycles, etc.

The Races

The races this year were all that the heart could desire. The classes were full, the horses well matched and won on their merits. The rain of Tuesday left the track in good condition, and fast time was made for a half mile race course. An accident occurred in the free-for-all pace which resulting in bruising the driver of St. Omar, Sherrill Pendleton, of Mentor and laming the horse. It was difficult to see who was to blame for the accident as it occurred just at the finish of the third heat when everyone was excited and driving at full speed. The driver of Dry Plate slackened speed just as he passed under the rope and pulled in. Pendleotn was not counting on such a move evidently, and before he could check St. Omar, the two collided, upsetting the sulky and pitching the drivier over into the crowd by the fence. Fortunately, no bones were broken and the runaway horse did no further damage than to lame itself a little. The work of Harrison in the 2:45 trot was great.

(Below are the winners, the article shows all horses and the place in the heats.)

Paving Main Street

The Painesville Brick Company is depositing their material for paving Main street, and the work of preparing the street and establishing the grade is now going on. The bricks are undergoing careful inspection by non-experts and experts with some variety of opinion as to their value for a pavement. There will be a lower course, and a course of more select material on the top. On Tuesday, Mr. Frank Morse, of Cleveland was on the street helping to establish the lines.

Death of John B. Mosher

Mr. John B. Mosher, for 51 yrs. a resident of Painesville, passed away quietly at his home on Washington street, Monday morning. He was born in Dutchess Co., N.Y., April 17, 1811 and was 79 yrs. old. In his childhood, his parents moved to Cattaraugus Co., and when he arrived at manhood, he came to Painesville in 1839 where he has since resided. In early life, Mr. Mosher married Miss Elizabeth Rosa, of Waterloo, N.Y., and one sister and his son and daughter, Mr. T. B. Mosher and Mrs. Boardman Lane are his surviving immediate relatives.

Some Things Below the Surface

In digging a trench 2' wide and 10' deep across Main St. for the purpose of planting a sewer previous to the Main Street paving, a number of reminders of bygone days turned up. On the east side and in line with the present gutter, at the depth of 20 inches was found a flag stone which was evidently part of the sidewalk 35 yrs. ago when the street was widened to 16 feet. The sidewalk at that time was 16' inside of the present sidewalk and 20" lower than now. A little lower down near the center of Main St., we encounter a relic of the old plank or timber supposed to be part of the old plank road laid some 50 years ago; it is from that famous old plank road leading from Fairport to Bloomfield, Trumbull Co. At little below this and about 3' below the present surface, a dressed sand stone was taken out some six or eight inches square; it evidently being an a marker of the point where the center line of the two streets intersected each other. Three was a stratum of black dirt continuous on both sides of the trench about 4 – 6" thick and extending entirely across the street and sloping upward. This area of brown dirt indicates the natural surface of Main street, one and two hundred years ago, before the civilizing hand of man disturbed its outline. For a hundred years, our citizens carried their heads lower than they do now.

Died - At the residence of his father, Mr. H. G. French, Sept. 30, Harry, age 21 yrs., of consumption.

Obituary

Mrs. Martha M. Finneran, wife of James Finneran, died Sept. 28, after a long illness of consumption. May 1st, she was taken dangerously ill at her home in Farmington, where she had resided the last three years. The last week of June, she rallied and was moved to Painesville where she was so eager to come. She was the eldest daughter of Isaac and Lorinda Palmer, born Sept. 17, 1841, near the Little Mountain. When she was 9 yrs. old, her parents moved down on Mentor avenue where she resided until her marriage with Capt. Edward O. Andrews, April, 1863. After eight years, he died of consumption, March, 1871, leaving her with three small children. At present, they are Oliver Cromwell, of Kansas, Henry Newton and James Edward Andrews, of Painesville. In the year 1872, she moved home to her father's in Painesville. In 1874, she married James Finneran, who is an engineer on the P.P. & F. R. R., stationed at Farmington. He with five children survive her, losing one in infancy in 1878. The eldest is 15 yrs. old and the youngest 7 yrs. old. She leaves an aged widowed mother who has been called upon to part with her fifth child, and, also, one brother and three sisters.

Mrs. Julia Tyler

Mrs. Julia Tyler, the youngest daughter of William Reynolds Sr., was born in Mentor in Dec., 1832, and died at their residence at Little Mountain, Sept. 17, age 57 yrs. and about 10

Her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Tisdell and, also Mrs. Leander Riker, both of Painesville. These with Oscar and Newton Cady and their families, of Madison, completed the party.

Mrs. Cady composed this poem for her family:

Just ninety years have passed away
Since first I saw the light of day,
From childhood to old age I passed
Through changing scenes from first to last.
God has preserved me all these days
And led me in mysterious ways,
Sickness and sorrow, toil and pain,
Yet many happy hours I've seen;
Among those changing scenes of life
Of my companion am bereft,
Eight children have been given me;
Four are now in eternity,
Four are yet left to comfort me
One daughter, aged seventy-three,
Three sons, the youngest fifty-two,
All growing old, ourselves and you.
