N. T. Ferry has moved the old barn behind the new one and built a long shed to connect them, making a grand wind break.

Willoughby Plains

Mr. & Mrs. E. W. Palmer and family went to spend New Year's at her old home in North LeRoy, at Mr. Moseley's.

Mr. Dennis Lapham's barn burned down with all the stock in it. The neighbors took up a collection and also gave him grain and other things.

Mentor Headlands

Mr. Joseph Howard is employed by Titus & Co. hauling hay and coal.

The Headlands farm of F. C. Moodey is located one and a half miles west from Fairport, from that point down to the pier, the sand beach is from five rods to one-half mile in width. In several places in this vicinity there is a wash bank, there being no sand at all. Capt. Averill and son have protected their property from the waves of the lake by sinking a few piers which have formed a wide sand beach which will probably remain permanent.

Mentor

Miss Mynderse, of Elyria, is visiting relatives here.

Fred Coats, wife and family, of Ashtabula, are the guests of Dr. Coats.

The Mentor Fire

Last Friday, Mr. C. A. Prentice's barns burned in Mentor. The fire was first discovered by one of Mr. Lamb's children who called his father's attention to a bright light outside. Mr. Lamb hastened and gave the alarm at the Disciple Church where nearly all the people of the town were assembled to hear the great evangelists. The fire being in close proximity to the church, a large force of workmen was soon on the ground but too late to save the contents. Mr. Prentice and family were at their winter home in Cleveland. Mr. C. Harvey, his foreman in charge, had not been anywhere near the building with a lantern or anything to cause a fire at any time during the day or evening. It was supposed a tramp had taken shelter in the barn, lit a pipe and fell asleep as charred remains were found.

Smith-Schaub

At pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. & Mrs. Link, Quincy street, Cleveland, O. The bride, Miss Minnie Schaub, of Cleveland, youngest daughter of Mrs. Schaub. The groom, Mr. A. C. Their new home is in Cleveland.

David Nelson Bacon

One of the early settlers of Lake Co. goes to his reward.

David Nelson Bacon, one of the oldest residents of Painesville, whose arrival in this county dates back to 1817, died at his home on Watson street, Dec. 27, after an illness of two weeks.

Mr. Bacon was born in Cayuga Co., N.Y., May 9, 1816, son of David and Deborah Bruntage Bacon, the former a native of Montpelier, Vermont, and the latter of New York. His father left an orphan at the age of three years was reared in Cayuga Co., N.Y., and was there married. In 1817, with his wife and two children he came out west to Ohio by ox team and wagon. He first settled in the northern part of Perry township, where he built his cabin and developed a small farm of forty-five acres. The Indians were numerous here and there was plenty of wild game in the forest. The elder Bacon lived on this farm for twenty-five years. Then he moved to Painesville township and developed another farm. His wife died at the age of forty-five years and he lived to be seventy-three. He and his wife reared a family of children as follows: Adaline, David N., Charles T., Alanson, Orlis J., Austin, Aceneth and George B. Orlis J. is the only one now living.

Jan. 3, 1894

Among these frontier surroundings, David N. was reared, receiving his education in one of the log schoolhouses. These schools were conducted on the rate bill system and the teacher "boarded around." After his marriage in 1838, Mr. Bacon settled in Painesville. He had a farm of eighty acres near town and a year later moved to it, residing there ten years, and at the end of that time going back to Painesville. For twelve years he ran a mill, and after that devoted his time exclusively to farming until 1889, when he sold his farm. He has since retired. Mr. Bacon has been twice married. In Dec. 1838, he wedded Harriet Stever, who was born and reared in Pennsylvania. They had six children, five of whom reached adult years: Harriet D. Elizabeth J., Charles N., Mary A. deceased, Madison H, deceased, and Esther. The wife and mother died Feb. 12, 1851. In July, 1852, Mr. Bacon married Mary S. Chappell, who was born in New York state, and who came to Lake Co., Ohio, in Oct., 1829, when she was seven years old. The only child is Mrs. W. C. Anderson.

Death of Dr. J. A. Rogers

The community was shocked by the news of the sudden death of Dr. J. A. Rogers, of Washington street, Sunday evening. The doctor had been failing since the death of his adopted son, Charles A. Benjamin, which he took sadly to heart. Sunday evening, he was walking around the house when Mrs. Rogers heard him fall, she rushed to his side only to find that life had departed.

Dr. Rogers was born in Bald Mountain, Washington Co., N.Y., Dec. 28, 1814 and was 79 yrs. old at the time of his death. After graduating from medical school in Boston, he studied in Cincinnati. After graduating there, he moved to Cleveland where he practiced medicine for a number of years. His health failing, he moved to LeRoy for ten years, then to Bostwick Corners, Geauga Co, which place he left in 1880 to live in Painesville.

Death of Mrs. A. L. Tinker

Painesville friends were shocked last Wednesday to learn of the death of Mrs. Tinker, wife of the late Hon. Alvin L. Tinker, of this place. Mrs. Tinker has been spending the winter with her cousin, John S. Ford, in Chicago, at whose home she died Tuesday. Relatives in Burton were only notified of her illness on Monday from which it is judged her death was not anticipated. A telegram from her brother, Mr. E. A. Ford, Gen. Passenger Agent of the Penn. Railroad, was received at Burton Christmas Day, stating that he was on his way to Chicago to see his sister who was ill. A second message last evening announced her death from brain fever.

Jan. 3, 1894

Mrs. Tinker was born in Burton in 1829 but has lived in Painesville the greater part of her life. Since the death of her husband in Jan., 1890, their home on Prospect street has been closed and Mrs. Tinker sought diversion in visiting friends. But after her present visit in the West, she intended to return early in the New Year and live again in this city. Her body was brought here last Thursday.

Obituary

Miss Eliza Malin was born May 10th, 1830, and died Dec. 29, 1893. The early days of her life were spent in her childhood home in Thompson. At the age of 24 yrs., she came to Painesville to take care of and be a mother to her brother's little motherless boy. Later, she moved to Watson street to take care of the aged mother for some years. Soon after the loss of her mother, a little orphan girl came to her home and was taken to her heart. The little girl now grown to be a woman, laid her away to rest.

Obituary

Samuel B. Hamlen

For many years, he was the teacher of music in the public schools and the chorister of St. James. He died Wed. on the very anniversary of the first attack of the affliction from which he suffered for twelve years – locomotor ataxia. He was first taken sick Jan. 11, 1892.

Prof. Hamlen was born in Granville, O., Feb. 20, 1835. He came from a race of singers, and he was once the leader of a choir in his native place which his father and grandfather had led before him. His mother was the daughter of Judge Bancroft, who belonged to family of the great historian. It was his father's desire that he should not devote his life to the musical profession, but Nature had implanted a love for music and voice to give it expression. He became a pupil of the famous Carlo Bassini from whom he received a recommendation. He taught in Cincinnati, and was afterwards associated with Prof. N. Coe Stewart in Normal School of Music in Cleveland. From there, he came to Painesville 1871 to become the instructor of music in the public schools. He married in 1865.

Mr. & Mrs. James Garrett, of Pearl street, tender their sincere thanks to their friends and neighbors for the kindness shown by them during the sickness of their son, Oscar.

Oscar Henry Garrett

The funeral of Oscar Henry Garrett took place Jan. 13th, at the home of his father, Mr. James Garrett, of Pearl street. The body was taken today to the vault at Perry, Ohio, to await burial.

He was born in LeRoy, Lake Co., Feb. 4, 1872, where he received a common school education. After a number of years, he removed with his parents to Concord, O., and finished his education with Prof. Benjamin Wert, and fitted himself for business. At the age of sixteen, he obtained an office position with the Geo. Worthington Co., Cleveland. He remained in their employ about four years, when his health failed him and he was obliged to give up his position. He went west one year and returned with his health improved. He again accepted his former position with Geo. Worthington Co. and remained until last Sept. when he returned to his father's home in Painesville and died Jan. 10th of consumption. He was 22 yrs. old.

Death of B. H. Warder

Mr. J. A. Allen, agent for the Warder, Bushnell & Glessner Co., manufacturers of the Champion harvesting machines, received a letter from Springfield Sunday advising him of the sudden death of Mr. B. H. Warder, senior member of the firm which occurred in Cairo, Egypt, Saturday.

Mr. Warder was 69 years old as of last November and seemed in the best of health before he sailed for Naples, Nov. 30th. His health continued good until within three days of the end. The cause of death was heart disease. His wife and two daughters were with him on the journey. Mr. Allen was well acquainted with Mr. Warder.

Charged with Stealing

Will Holmes and Will Cudney were arrested in Mentor last Saturday and taken before Squire Rexford on three charges of stealing. ### Madison Aroused – Suspected Case of Poisoning

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Mark Woodworth occurred at her home Sunday night. The peculiar circumstances of their death have resulted in a demand of an investigation and Coroner J. V. Winans was summoned Tuesday.

It appears Mrs. Woolworth had an ordinary attack of influenza and sent to her physician for a dose of Rochelle salts. The physician applied to was a young doctor by the name of Bradley who has recently located in Madison. When the dose was received and the package opened, it did not look like salts and was returned to the doctor to be examined. He refused to do it and informed the bearer that he knew what he was administering. The dose was taken. Three minutes afterwards the patient went into spasms and died in twenty-four hours. Coroner Winans assisted by Dr. H. N. Amidon who accompanied him to Madison, made a post mortem examination and removed the stomach which was sent to Cleveland for chemical analysis.

Feb. 7, 1894

came in direct Douglas descent to Mr. Maul, Mrs. Warner's stepfather. Her mother gave the valued relic to her when she was a young girl, but returned all but two other relics to the Douglas family when Mr. Maul died.

A Painesville Boy Honored

About twenty years ago, Mr. W. D. Tillotson, son of James Tillotson, went from Painesville to Tacoma, Washington. He became active in the business circles there and in the political affairs of the new state. President Harrison made him consul general to Yokohama, Japan, to look after the commercial interest of the U.S. His recent recall by President Cleveland was sincerely regretted by his friends in Japan, who presented him with a gold stop watch, with gold chain and locket. In the center of the locket, is a diamond and his monogram is inscribed on the outer case of the watch.

Mike Bolenski had his left arm torn from his body when a pile of frozen ore fell from a ledge above while he was working at the Painesville docks on Thursday. He was working by the side of an ore shovel and his arm was driven against the shovel and amputated just below the elbow. He was, otherwise, badly cut, so that it is doubtful if he can survive. He has a wife but no children and has lived in Fairport several years, being regularly employed on the docks. Later, he is reported somewhat better today. Dr. Winans has hopes for his recovery.

Guthrie-Brown

The marriage of Miss Frances E. Brown, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Frank Brown, and Mr. John P. Gurthrie, of Watertown, N.Y., occurred at St. Mary's Church Jan. 31, 1894. Miss Katherine Guthrie, of Rochester, N.Y. sister of the groom was bridesmaid and Mr. John P. Brown, brother of the bride acted as best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to a party of twenty-two. Among the gifts was one hundred dollars in gold from the bride's mother, and a check for two hundred and seventy-five dollars from Mr. Frank Brown. The couple will reside in Watertown, N.Y.

No Poison Found

Two weeks ago, the people of Madison were excited over a case of suspected poisoning by medicine supposed to have been administered by mistake by a young physician of that village. The sudden death of Mrs. Mark Woodworth was the occasion of the alarm. The stomach was taken to Dr. P. L. Hobbs, of the Western Reserve College of Medicine in Cleveland and last week Coroner Winans received information that the analysis was completed. No poisonous substance was found in the stomach and other parts sent to the chemist. Death resulted from nephritis.

Obituary

Mrs. Marianne Smith Brainard

Died at the residence of her son, Mr. W. F. Smith, March 18, after a brief illness. Marianne Kendall was born in 1804 in Deerfield, Mass., where she spent her early youth. She was educated at Amherst. When she was twenty, she came with some other members of her family to the Western Reserve, the western frontier at that time. She was a teacher and taught in Hudson, in Cleveland, and in Trumbull Co. In 1837, she married George Smith, of Kirtland, Ohio. When the Mormons came to Kirtland and then left for Southern Indiana, Mr. Smith went with them. From there they removed to Marine, Ill., where Mr. Smith died in 1851. His widow, broken in health and spirit took her little family and returned to Ohio. After some years, she married her brother-in-law, Benjamin Brainard, of Unionville, and at his death came to Painesville where she has lived,

Green

Lucius Green, of Perry, O., died March 17th. He was born in Madison, O., September 7th, 1828, into which town his grandfather, who was one of the early settlers had moved, accompanied by Jesse, his son, then a boy, afterwards the father of Lucius. There he lived, attending school, helping on his father's farm. At 21 yrs. of age, he took his first trip to California going from Fairport to New York by lake, then by ocean via Cape Horn, the journey taking several months. For three years, he worked in the gold fields. Returning to Madison, he married Miss Corilla Sinclair, on April 20, 1854, and the year following moved to Perry. In 1861, he commenced the nursery business which has now grown to be one of Perry's chief interests. A years ago, ill health made him retire from the business. He had 300 acres under cultivation. During this period, he made no less than seven trips to California, taking large quantities of trees to make the golden west more fruitful. His son, Fred, has taken over the business the last five years; to reduce pressure on him, he sold the nursery stock and the present company was formed.

Fire at Black Brook

The home of Capt. Dan Ingraham on Black Brook road, burned down Sat. with all its contents. The origin of the fire is a mystery. Capt. Ingraham was in Buffalo on business and Mrs. Ingraham, fearing to stay alone at her house, went to the home of her daughter, just east of their place, to spend the night. In the morning, she returned to her home and lit the kitchen fire. She recalls now that she had smelled smoke, but failing to find a cause, went back to her daughter's for breakfast. While they were eating, the home of Capt. Ingraham was discovered to be on fire. The only theory advanced for the origin of the fire is that tramps got in during the night and set fire to the house. In the cellar was a barrel of coal oil and it is believed the fire was started near this.

Mr. & Mrs. Ed Card were given a party Wed. evening. They are about to leave their home in Painesville for California.

Obituary – Mrs. Martha J. Sherwood

Martha J. Sherwood has solved the mystery of life and died April 2nd. She was the daughter of Gurdon and Rebecca Chadwick and was born May 10, 1834, in Lockport, N.Y. The family came to Painesville township 40 years ago and afterwards moved to LeRoy. At the age of 14, Martha J. Chadwick began to teach district school. When only 16 yrs. old, she taught in the grammar school of Painesville. She graduated at Willoughby Seminary, afterwards, Lake Eire, in 1853. Sometime after her graduation, she became principal of the High School in this village. For 5 or 6 years, she ministered to the growth and standing of Madison Seminary, after which she began to teach again in the high school. She married Dr. William Harper Sherwood in 1866, on May 10th, which was her birthday. They had two children, Clara Rebecca, who died when ten years old; and Malvina Harper, who graduated from LaSalle Seminary in 1890, and afterwards spent two years in New York, in the Scarwenke Music School. Mrs. Sherwood has been more or less severely sick for a year. The interment was in the family lot in Unionville.

Death of Peter Kleeberger

Peter Kleeberger died at his home on Washington street Friday. He suffered an attack of pneumonia in November from which he never fully recovered. On Monday, he had an attack of

p. 4 Descendants of Indian Shanks in New York State

The little store at Slayback's settlement in the wild region about the headwaters of the Delaware River, in Delaware and Sullivan counties, has among its customers some who are the queerest lot that any one has ever seen. They are a race entirely to themselves and live in the wilderness away from any other human habitation. There are about two hundred of these people, and they are all related to one another. They are known by three family names, the Shankes, The Walshes, and the Macartys, but how they came there no one knows. Their origin was peculiar.

More than a century ago, while a good many Indians still tarried on their old hunting and fishing grounds, in the upper Delaware wilderness, a family named Shannon settled near the headwaters of the Popacton branch of the Delaware. They were father, mother and three daughters. The mother died soon after they came to the region. The eldest daughter left home and lived with an Indian hunter known as Shanks, who had a cabin in that vicinity. Sometime thereafter her father was found dead with a bullet through his brain. His murderer was never found. His other two daughters, joined their sister in the Indian's cabin and for several years the three women lived with the hunter, leading the life of savages. Each of the sisters had nine children by their Indian lord and when he left the region and went to Canada never to return, they remained and there are people in Delaware Co. today who remember them as old women begging and thieving about the country. Their numerous offspring intermarried and the present group in the mountain beyond the Slayback settlement are descendants of them to the third and fourth generation. They are expert fishermen and trappers. They bring fish, game, furs, nuts, and berries into the Slayback store and trade them for such things as they require. They all chew and smoke, the women and children as well as the men. Peculiar among these people is their indisposition to talk. There are many mutes among the children of the present generation and deformities are almost a rule.

Apr. 11, 1894

Three Plucky Girls

Last Saturday, the Misses Sadie Cone, Nettie Barnes, and Esther Andrews started out with a horse and carriage to gather some of the first flowers of spring. As they were driving east along the river, they came across the gypsy caravan which passed through the village on that day. The horse took fright at the gypsy outfit and upset the carriage. Miss Cone was driving and held on to the reins and was dragged. The other girls now came to her aid, Miss Andrews seized the horse by the bridle and had her foot stepped on, but she still clung to the bridle and was carried along with the rest. Presently, they came to a small tree and Miss Andrews threw her other arm around it. It was now a question between the horse and the tree. The horse tugged away at the roots of the tree for a while, but gave up the chase, and the girls brought it back in triumph to the barn.

A Courageous Act

While Harry Underwood and Frank Jones were playing along the bank of the now unused reservoir of the Water Works Co., the former fell into the water, which is said to be twenty feet deep. The embankment is ten feet high and it would be impossible for one who had fallen in to get out unaided. His friend called lustily for help and attracted the attention of John Connell, who happened to be at the target of the P.P. & F. railroad. Connell ran to the reservoir and saw the boy going under, he jerked off his two coats and plunged into the water. Others were attracted by young Jones, and J. H. Severance came along with a board and with this the two were fished out. Harry Underwood is the son of Gideon Underwood, who lives on Wood street.

Apr. 25, 1894

struck by the west bound fast mail. Death was almost instantaneous. The remains were brought to the undertaking rooms of E. D. Keener in this city. Mr. Gallagher was about twenty-five years old and leaves a wife and two small children.

Obituary

Peter Kleeberger was born at Hartzthal, Rhein Bavaria, Germany, July, 1820, and died in Painesville, Ohio, April 6, 1894; age 74 yrs. He came to America when he was 18 yrs. old. He learned a trade and soon found work in Cleveland. He was married in 1848 to Susan Stuart. Since then with the exception of short periods in Cleveland and Sandusky, he has resided in Painesville. For many years, he carried on the marble business, and during his entire business life he never had a law suit. When but little past the prime of life, he was stricken with the dreaded disease which threatens the life of all workers in marble, stonecutters consumption. For over thirty years, the fine dust had been accumulating in his lungs. In 1871, he was taken sick and four doctors said he would die. However, after three years, he recovered but has never since been strong. He had an artistic taste and for several years made crayon portraits, but long since, he had given up all efforts to support himself and family, and his wheeled chair pushed by one of his family has been a familiar object on our streets. His trust in God was supreme, and his favorite theme was heaven and rest. He leaves a wife and children.

Who Will Get the Reward?

The question now agitating the local officers is, who will get the reward for the recovery of the diamonds stolen from the Home Security Co., of Cleveland? The account published in the Telegraph gave all credit to Marshal Sidley. The Cleveland Leader says that Detective Granger found the jewels. Marshal Sidley says that Detective Granger testified in court yesterday that he (Sidley) found the diamonds—that is, he located the exact hiding place, although Granger pulled the bag out of the ground.

James Christie Arrested

James C. Christie was arrested Friday evening by Marshal Sidley on the charge of bastardy. The warrant was issued in Youngstown. It was for attempting to arrest Christie for this same affair without legal warrant that Charles Adams, of the Morse Detective Agency, of Cleveland, came to grief a year ago. It will be remembered that Adams was arrested by officer Mosher on the charge of kidnapping, was bound over to the grand jury and was indicted for carrying concealed weapons.

The Painesville Board of Trade has 110 members. The Board will rent the suite of rooms known as the lodge rooms in the third story of the Gage Block. The lease is for two years.

Death of Mrs. Frederick Wilkes

This community was shocked Sunday to learn of the death of Mrs. Frederick Wilkes. Her illness was of very short duration. She died of pleuropneumonia and paralysis Saturday night. She had been a life-long resident of Painesville. Mr. Wilkes has been confined to the house ten days with pneumonia so the services were kept short.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. & Mrs. W. H. Corkens celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on May 3rd at their home on south St. Clair street. ### Death of Mr. Markham

Mr. A. Markham, best known to this community as the father of Miss Caroline Markham, principal of St. Clair street school, died at the family residence on N. State street Monday. He was 80 yrs. old and died of malarial fever. Mr. Markham was for over fifty years a resident of Ashtabula Co., where he is better known than here and where he has long been held in the highest esteem. Several years ago, he brought his wife to Painesville that they might be nearer their daughter. But after living here five years, they returned to the old home in Austinburgh, where Mrs. Markham died about two years ago. Again Mr. Markham became a resident of Painesville and here amid the kindly ministrations of his devoted daughter and the fond love of two adopted children he has peacefully finished his course and gone to his reward. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for over 50 years.

Mrs. Mary Esther Bacon

The death of Mrs. Mary Esther Bacon, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Horace Bacon, May 2nd, calls for more than the passing notice. Esther Race was born in Penn Yan, Yates Co., N.Y., June 27, 1828, and came with her parents to Ohio when six years of age. On June 14, 1848, she was married to W. L. Bacon and for almost forty years the two walked hand in hand. One son and two daughters were born to them. The first great sorrow of their lives came in the death of their devoted daughter, Minnie. On Dec. 30, 1888, the fond husband also died.

Weather: A heavy hail storm passed over this section Wednesday night but does not seem to have done any particular damage to growing crops and fruit. For ten or fifteen minutes, the hailstones rattled on the roof but they fell in a pretty still atmosphere and without the unusual accompaniment of wind. The hailstones varied in size from a marble to a hen's egg. The storm at Fairport was particularly severe and here the hailstones measured from an inch to an inch and a half in diameter falling with almost incessant flashes of lightning in the night and covering the ground.

p. 1 Peanuts in Germany

The increasing use of the peanut as a food staple in other parts of the world is attracting the attention of our department of state, and the bureau of statistics is gathering information from the consuls about it. Most of the nuts imported in Germany are used only for their oil. Only twenty-five tons were imported from this country. Most of the oil is used as a substitute for olive oil for salads and cooking. It was the nutritional quality of the peanut oil cake fed to domestic animals which set to experimenting with the nut as a cheap food.

Waste of Water

The City of Cleveland has the Same Trouble as the Local Company

Every summer the waterworks department of the city of Cleveland has trouble with consumers who waste the water. Every year notices are sent out restricting the use of water for sprinkling purposes to certain hours. Cleveland will begin to enforce the rule by turning off the water of any consumer who is found sprinkling between the hours of 8 in the morning and 5 in the evening, and will not turn it on again until the consumer pays a $1. fine. They propose to stop the waste of water, not alone because of the present scarcity and uncertainty of obtaining coal, but because it is detrimental to the interests of the department.

A Brutal Assault

A young man named Riley Brown, of Willoughby, brutally assaulted Mr. & Mrs. A. Webster, of Bank street on Sunday. The young man had been out all night and was lying in the grass at the side of the track east of Bank street waiting for the train. This land appeared to be the right of way of the railroad, but Mr. Webster has a reservation in his lease to the company by which the grass and the fruit grown on the strip belong to him. Mr. Webster ordered the young man off the land as he was tramping down the grass. Brown refused to leave. Mrs. Webster heard the altercation and threw part of a bucket of water on the young man. He resented this and struck Mrs. Webster on both sides of her head and knocking her down. Mr. Webster went to her rescue and received several blows in the face. Mr. Webster sent for Sheriff Barber, who arrested Brown, who plead guilty to the charge of assault the next morning. He was fined $5 and costs and committed to jail until the fine and costs are paid.

The Body of an Unknown Man Found in the Huntington Woods

Henry Huntington and C. W. Bryant were working in the Huntington woods and found the badly decomposed body of a man. Coroner Winans was summoned from Fairport to take charge of the body. Investigation soon revealed the fact that it was a case of suicide. The man killed himself with a revolver. There was nothing to identify the stranger. Due to the condition of the body, the coroner ordered it buried at once.

Mr. & Mrs. C. H. Clapp print a card of thanks to their friends and neighbors for their help and assistance in their time of need.

Born- June 20th, to Mr. & Mrs. S. E. Cone, of Mentor, Ohio, a son.

L. S. Abbott, of West End, Va., June 17, 1894 corrects some information given in the obituary for Henry F. Canfield. R. Canfield served his apprenticeship in The Telegraph and boarded in my family during that time. He did not enlist in Capt. Dyer's company; he enlisted some time afterwards in Capt. John F. Morse's company, I think. The Telegraph contained the name of every man, who enlisted from Lake Co., while I was its owner.

After a long and weary search, the brothers (George and Charles) of Howard E. Ogle found his body in Evergreen Cemetery and the mystery surrounding the unknown suicide in the Huntington woods is solved. The boy was discovered on June 29th. Two bottles were found with him bearing the names of two different pharmacists in Ann Arbor, Mich. Coroner Winans wrote to the pharmacist and requested them to have a description of the suicide published in Ann Arbor papers. This was done and in time was brought to the attention of the brothers in Chicago, who had been searching for him. The brothers said that about a year ago, Howard, who was twenty-four years old, had lost his wife. He never came out from the shadow of that affliction. He believed she was urging him to the better land until, it is presumed, he committed suicide.

Mr. Harry P. Bosworth and Mr. Harry E. Hammer formed a partnership for the general practice of law.

Obituary

Mrs. Mary Caroline Schuyler, the oldest representative of the Schuyler family in this country, died early yesterday at the Schuyler homestead near Arlington, N.J., where she had lived for many years with her only son Henry Kingsland Schuyler. She was the widow of Arent Henry Schuyler, who died in 1878 shortly after celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary on April 25, 1878. Mrs. Schuyler was a daughter of Judge Henry W. Kingsland, of Bergen Co., and a granddaughter of Edmund William Kingsland. She had eleven children, three of whom are living. They are Henry Kingsland Schuyler, Mrs. Anthony P. Valentine, and Mrs. Van Courtland VanRensselaer. Her husband's father was a descendant of Philip Pietersie Schuyler, who came from Holland in 1650 and settled in Albany. Arent Henry Schuyler was born on the Schuyler estate, where he died. His grandfather, Arent, settled in Pompton, N.J., in 1697, and moved from there to the present Schuyler tract in 1710, where the famous Schuyler copper mines were later discovered there by a negro slave. The subject of the above sketch is a cousin of George Kingsland Reynolds, of this city.

region in Pennsylvania, where he was able to gain a competency sufficient for his old age. He leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. Berry of Minneapolis, and George Parker, of Portland, Ore.

Death of Robert H. Wheelock

It is a sad duty today to chronicle the death of Robert H. Wheelock, son of Mr. & Mrs. H. A. Wheelock, of Washington street. He died Tuesday morning at the family home. A year ago, last April, Mr. Wheelock contracted a severe cold while engaged on a tug in Cleveland harbor. During a severe storm, his tug went out for three tows and all on board were thoroughly drenched. Consumption claimed him as its victim before he had reached the twenty-fourth birthday. In April, 1892, Mr. Wheelock was married to Miss Annie Brennan, who is left to mourn, now a widow. Besides a bereaved father and mother, the deceased has a brother, Mr. Dan Wheelock, of Tarrytown, N.Y., and a sister, Miss Ella Wheelock of Painesville.

With the death of John Newell, President of the Lake Shore Railway Co., Sunday afternoon at Youngstown, Ashtabula, suffered a great personal loss. It was common expression among his under officials that "Ashtabula Harbor was President Newell's hobby." He did more to build up the city than any other one person has ever done.

August 29, 1894

Last week, he was in apparent good health and was working about his home. Sunday, he was quite weak and went to bed during the day and did not again leave it. His son, Walter, left him at 3 o'clock that morning when he seemed to be feeling better. Soon after, Mr. Riker passed away. He was fifty-seven years of age. He came to this city from Long Island when a boy and has resided in this city ever since. He leaves a widow and seven children: Mrs. C. A. Shaw, of Canton; Mrs. E. C. Rodman, of Binghamton, N.Y.; Mr. Henry Riker, of Cleveland; Mrs. James Hamlin, Mr. Walter Riker and Miss Alma and Ethel Riker. The funeral services were held from his late residence on south St. Clair, Friday.

Three barns on the farm of William Andrews in north Perry were totally destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. A steam thresher had been at work at the barns and had only left the place about an hour when the fire was discovered. There were four horses in the barns, two were gotten out and two burned. Wheat, oat, hay, straw and two mowing machines were, also, destroyed. The contents mostly belonged to John Dunkle.

Another Gate Case

A complaint was made by William Tear, of LeRoy, who charged that his neighbor, Ephraim Prentice, has been maliciously opening his gate, cutting the ropes that swung it, and otherwise unlawfully tampering with it which seems a fertile source of neighborhood quarrels. Mr. Prentice saved the county the costs of trying the case by pleading guilty and paying his little fine.

Born - To Mr. & Mrs. John Marklay, of North St. Clair street, a son, Aug. 26th.

Died - At her residence in Boston, Mass., Aug. 23, 1894, Mrs. Florida G. Blythe, daughter of the late C. W. Heard, of Cleveland, O. Private interment occurred at Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland, O., Aug. 26.

Sept. 5, 1894                      Wednesday

p. 1 Duluth, Minn. Sept. 4 - Never in the history of Minnesota, and not at all in the life of the northwest except at the time of the fires in the Michigan pineries in Oct., 1871, twenty-three years ago, has there been such a terrible loss of life and such suffering as has been caused by the forest fires of the past two days in northern Minnesota. While the property loss has not been so great in the aggregate, the loss of life has been simply awful. It is estimated that between 800 and 1,500 people had been burned to death or suffocated, and the wide discrepancy in these figures is but proof of the utter impossibility of getting reliable information. Many are homeless.

Ironwood, Mich. Sept. 4 - Tremendous forest fires are prevailing throughout the upper peninsula of Michigan and northern Wisconsin. The district between Watersmeet and Bessemer, over fifty miles, is a mass of seething flames, and homesteaders are making desperate attempts to escape. There is very little water, and thousands of men are out with picks and shovels and succeed in keeping the flames back only by throwing dirt upon the burning stumps and brush.

Death of Charles Florus Stumm

The death of Charles Florus Stumm occurred Friday. This end, foreseen for days, was the result of nervous prostration, it is thought, by years of close application to telegraphy. Ten months ago, Mr. Stumm was compelled to give up a fine position as assistant building inspector of Cleveland on account of insomnia. He came to Painesville hoping to recover his health, but this affliction grew upon him. Before being a building inspector, for 28 yrs., he had been the chief operator of the Western Union offices in Cleveland. In Painesville, Mr. Stumm was well known from his marriage with Miss Delilah Morse, daughter, of Mr. & Mrs. Christopher Morse, of Mentor Ave. They were married March 25, 1862. Their home was in Cleveland where three sons have grown to manhood. Had he lived until this Wednesday, he would have been 56 yrs. old. He leaves a widow and three sons. The sons and brothers of the deceased and Geo. H. Shepherd acted as pall bearers. The remains were deposited in Evergreen Cemetery.

Shot Himself

Nelson Hoose, one of the best-known residents of Perry, shot himself early Tuesday morning while in a state of mental unbalance. He was found lying in a pool of blood. He was in a semi-conscious state and at times could answer questions. When asked why he shot himself, he answered that he did not know. The ball was fired directly in the forehead between the eyes, fracturing the skull and exposing the brains. The wound is a terrible one and will probably prove fatal.

The bridal party, which was confined to the families of the bride and groom, were taken from Cleveland to Willoughby by special train, and after the service, a wedding breakfast was served to them in their car. The couple will sail directly from New York to Italy.

A Sudden Death

Mrs. George W. Payne died very suddenly at her home corner of Walnut and St. Clair street. It appears that Mrs. Payne had become worn out by care of her father, D. W. Mead, who suffered a stroke of paralysis a month ago, and being subject to sudden fits of sickness, she was taken ill shortly after her arrival home Friday evening. When Mr. Payne, awakened in the morning, he found that his wife had expired. The deceased was about 50 years of age.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Moses H. Colby died Sept. 18, 1894, aged 74 yrs. Shuah Fifield was born in Sutton New Hampshire, Sept. 28, 1820. Married M. H. Colby in 1836 and together they journeyed by wagon to the Western Reserve, then considered far west and settled in the Huntoon neighborhood. From there they moved to Michigan, but afterwards they returned to Concord Township, and later on settled in Painesville where they have since resided, having been identified with the town some 50 years. Five children were born to them, two of whom only are living, Mr. Geo. S. Colby and Mrs. Carrie Brown, both residents of this place. Mrs. Colby survived her husband less than 7 yrs., during which time and before, she had been a confirmed invalid.

Lost Girl Found

Wednesday's Cleveland World contained the story of a Swedish girl by the name of Mamie Tjernstrom, who left Painesville four weeks ago to find employment in Cleveland, and has since been missing. She is a pretty girl of twenty and has a sister working for the Misses Adams, a brother of Mrs. D. T. Casement's and a cousin at Dr. W. H. Fowler's. The girl was found to be comfortably located in the family of D. H. Berner, No. 2246 Euclid Ave., and apparently satisfied with her work. All's well, that ends so well.

Sept. 26, 1894

The Willoughby Fair

All roads led to Willoughby Thursday. Judging from the deserted streets of Painesville, about one-half of this town was there. A conservative estimate would place the crowd at 7,000. The Main street from Gibbon's Hotel to the Park, was lined with pretty booths filled with merchants' and farmers' displays. The race course was around and alongside the park. The morning street parade at 10 o'clock was followed by a drill of forty cadets and a fireman's contest. There was fine weather and magnificent roads helping to make it a splendid success.

Death of Elijah Brown

The death of Elijah Brown, a prominent and successful farmer, of Concord Township, occurred at his home in the Brown settlement Monday evening. Mr. Brown suffered a stroke of paralysis last spring from the effects of which he never fully recovered. On Friday, a second stroke hastened his end. Mr. Brown was one of Concord's pioneers. He was born in that township, and with the exception of a few years spent in Hamden, his whole life, covering three-quarters of a century, was spent there. Mr. Brown leaves a wife and two sons, Alfred and Fred.

the body for Detroit Monday and took it to the crematory Tuesday.

Trials of a Widower

Eugene Downing, who lives near the Brakeman Church, in LeRoy, was in town the first of last week looking after a stray wife. A year or so ago, Mr. Downing was made the father of a pair of twins and at the same time a widower, for the mother died in giving birth to them. Time passed and the father, finding the care of seven children too great a burden for him to bear alone, took unto himself a wife. A German woman, who lived in Cleveland was recently installed in the home as the new mother and the domestic life of Downing was once more adjusted and his lot cast in pleasant line. But the new mother had three children of her own in Germany, and shortly after her marriage, her heart began to pine for the absent ones. To please his wife, Downing concluded to run the risk of having his already large family suddenly increased by three and sent $200 to bring them from Germany, the missing links to his wife's happiness. They arrived in Painesville about two weeks ago all duly labeled and ticketed for LeRoy. The joy of the family all together only lasted a week. A day or two after the departure of the children from Germany, an aunt with whom they had lived, died and willed them and their mother $17,000. This news caused a change in the Leroy home. Monday morning, Mr. Downing found his wife and her three little Germans were gone. It appears that this Mrs. Downing is on the way back to Germany.

The second annual Ashtabula Street Fair was a success. The principal business streets were lined with handsome booths in which articles entered for competition were displayed. The exhibit of layer and chocolate cake, the exhibit of baked pork and beans, the display of curios and the display of the Ashtabula Gun Club attracted great attention. The afternoon was given up to athletic sports. These were hotly contested.

Obituary

David C. Wilson, fourth and youngest child of Levi G. and Minerva Wilson, was born in Middleburg, Vt., Jan. 5, 1831. His parents moved to Mentor, Ohio, in 1836, and settled on a small farm in the Baxter neighborhood. After the death of his father in 1839, the family moved to Painesville, Ohio. At the age of 18 yrs., he was employed by Dr. J. G. Moore, a prominent dentist. After a year and a half, his brother, Lewis Wilson, induced him to enter the merchant-tailoring business with him. At the death of his brother in 1852, he assumed the control of the business, but failed in a few years from inability to collect from those he trusted. He served in the rebellion from Sept, 1864 to June, 1865. He went to Missouri for two years, and they came back to Painesville and took up dentistry. He was married to Marion Flanders, Jan. 5, 1853, by whom his only children, George

Euclid Beach Park Company

Thursday's Leader contained notice of the incorporation of the Euclid Beach Park Company. The papers show a capital stock of $300,000 and there is some local interest attached to it from the fact that several Painesville gentlemen are among the incorporators. There are Messrs. Albert E. Thompson, of Cleveland, agent of the Crescent Transportation Co., which operates a large fleet of steamers; John Flynn, of Duluth, John R. Irwin, of Painesville, manager of the Fairport docks; Hylas B. Gladwish and J. B. Burrows, also, of Painesville. The company has already secured a beautiful grove on the shore of the lake. The beach is one of the finest on the south shore of Lake Erie. The work of transforming this grove to a first-class picnic resort will begin in about two weeks. There will be a pavilion three stories in height, with a dancing room, refreshment booths and verandas. A large bath house will be built with large dressing rooms. Three toboggan slides will be put in and other amusement apparatus. The boats will start from some convenient place in the river and go to Cleveland.

In Memoriam

Grace I. Tuttle, was born Aug. 5, 1875, at Painesville, O. While yet a child, she moved with her parents to North Dakota. Two years later, she returned on a visit to her former home. In 1880, her young life was saddened by the death of a baby sister. Six years later, death again entered their home, this time leaving her fatherless. Yet, another six years passed, and her mother died. But even then, consumption had marked her for its victim. In the fall of 1891, she and her mother had gone to Mexico for a change of climate, it was there that her mother died. She was better until the spring of '93, when all the old symptoms came back. Her physician advised a change of climate, back to her Dakota home, and she went in company with her brother and sister. For more than a year she was better, but then a sudden cold claimed here. She died Oct. 31, 1894. Her remains were brought to Painesville where the sad last rites were held at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Harris, after which they were laid to rest by the side of the loved ones gone before.

One-by-one the old pioneers are passing from view. This week, we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Susan Hodges, of south Mentor, at the age of 80 yrs. Mrs. Hodges was the sister of James Prouty, so well known in Mentor and is the last member of the Prouty family. She leaves only one son, who is a resident of Painesville. She was only ill the last few days and the doctor determined it was heart trouble and informed her daughter-in-law, with whom she resided, that she could die at any time. This proved to be true. Sat., she was able to sit up and converse as usual, about 4 o'clock she laid down, turned over and ceased to breath. She has gone to be numbered with the long list of good people who have passed before her.

W. E. Prouty and Emma W. Mitchelson are executors of Caroline P. Frisbie, deceased, late of Lake Co., Ohio.

Mary J. A. Hutchinson is the executrix of Clara J. Averill, deceased, late of Painesville, Lake Co., Ohio.

After Forty Years

Forty years ago, Mr. E. D. Rich, then a prominent young man of Kirtland, paid his attentions to a young lady in Mentor, and in time the two were engaged to be married. But a misunderstanding arose which caused a separation and the two drifted off into different channels. Mr. Rich was subsequently married and after a successful business career here moved to Cleveland where he has built up a great marble works. The Mentor girl developed into an excellent Nebraska school teacher and had not married.

A year ago, Mr. Rich was left a widower and returned to Kirtland's sunny hills. He planned to meet that Mentor girl again and rob Nebraska of a teacher. A meeting was planned in Painesville, and here the two saw each other for the first time in forty years. They procured a license and were married Wednesday. The bride was Miss Julia Root, formerly of Mentor.

Death of Mrs. W. C. Richardson

News was received here Thursday of the death of Mrs. W. C. Richardson, of Cleveland, at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. F. Couch, in Madison. Mrs. Richardson came to Madison last week to spend some time with her sister. She was taken ill and forced to undergo a surgical operation as the only hope of saving her. The operation was

Dr. J. V. Winans was given a goodbye party in Fairport on Thursday. Dr. & Mrs. Winans were moving to Madison.

The Third Son

Frank McCabe, youngest son of John McCabe, whose home is in South Mentor, was killed by the train cars in Youngstown Thursday. He was 22 yrs. old and belonged to a family of railroaders. Two of his brothers had already met death upon the railroad and now the aged parents are bowed in grief for their third and youngest son. Nine years ago, Thomas McCabe, the eldest brother, lost his life on the Union Pacific. A year ago, last August, John McCabe was killed in an accident on the Lake Shore at Perry. Frank was a brakeman on the Eastern division of the P. & W. and had been in the employ of the company about three years. There are two brothers left and they are both on the railroad. The body of the youngest son, Frank McCabe, was brought to Painesville and taken to Mentor. He was setting a brake on a car, his foot slipped and he fell on the track and forty cars passed over his body.

German Tramp Cards

A modification of the German system of cards for men tramping in search of work has been introduced in England. It provided the bearer's last employer, a certificate of character, and on which suitable authority prints a list of proper places at which to apply for shelter and food in every city in the United Kingdom. One, who does not have the card, is made to labor in the workhouse wherever he is caught.

A Perry Farmer Severely Handled by an Angry Bull

Mr. B. F. Wood, a prominent farmer of Perry, came near being killed last week by an angry Jersey bull. Mr. Wood lives in North Perry. Not far from the house is the barn, the yard of which was the scene of the great fight which lasted half an hour. He was in the act of taking up the cattle when he was attacked by the vicious animal. Three times, the animal pitched him over its head and would have killed him, had it not been for the ring in its nose. Mr. Wood while down on the ground got a firm grip on the ring and succeeded in holding on until help arrived. He finally heard a team crossing a neighboring bridge and called for help. He was heard by Will Childs, who stopped with a rope and secured the bull and assisted Mr. Wood into the house. Dr.

Dec. 12, 1894

Hausch, of Perry, was called to care for the wounded man. Besides broken ribs, Mr. Wood was severely bruised in other parts of the body and had stitches in his face. This is his second accident with unruly livestock. A few years ago, he was kicked by one of his horses and had a leg badly broken.

p. 1 The Steele Trial

Cleveland, Dec. 18 – Horace Steel, who is standing trial for alleged implication in the wrecking of the Painesville bank, took the witness stand Monday in his own behalf and his testimony amounted to a complete denial of any knowledge of any irregularity in conducting the affairs of the bank. He was cross examined with references to a specific transaction with Mr. Eddy, a Painesville man, who is a cripple and has been bedridden for 10 yrs. and lost all he had, $1,700, in the bank at the time the crash came. Since then Eddy brought a civil suit against Steele to recover the amount, alleging that he went to the bank before the institution failed to withdraw his money, having heard the bank was unsafe. He says, he was persuaded by Steele not to withdraw the money, who told him the bank was as sound as any in the world. Mr. Steele denied that he had told Eddy that he had given the bank personal attention and knew that it was solid. He emphatically denied that he had told Mr. Eddy that the bank had certain property that insured its solvency.

p. 2 Madison

Sudden Death

Mrs. Petty, of Thompson, died very suddenly Monday at the home of her brother, Mr. W. J. Smith, of South State street. Mrs. Petty drove to his place from Thompson and was apparently in good health. Death was caused by heart disease. The funeral was held at the residence of her brother, W. G. Smith, South State street.

Death of Mrs. Darrow

Mrs. Sarah M. Darrow, one of our oldest citizens, died at the residence of her son, Mr. John Q. Darrow, on the park, Friday. She had been confined to the house during the autumn and early winter, but her affliction did not assume a serious form till within a few days.

Anti-Toxine

A new remedy for diphtheria, Anti-Toxine, which is attracting so much attention in affected districts was first given to the media world by Dr. Roux, an associate of the great Pasteur, of Paris. The demand for it has been so great and the facilities for its production so limited that it's been impossible to do more than supply the hospitals of Europe with the precious fluid, whose healing qualities are probably far inferior to its supposed worth. The Board of Health has purchased some of the medicine of Dr. Gibler and it is being tried in Ashtabula during the present epidemic.

Officers of Temple Lodge

At the annual meeting, the following officers were elected:

W.M., William B. Blair

Lake Co. Agricultural Society is Dissolved

The Board of Direction met Sat. and after due deliberation a motion to dissolve was passed and the Agricultural Society has gone out of existence. The property held by the society will now fall into the hands of the board of county commissioners to be disposed of as they think proper. The discontinuance of the county fair is to be greatly regretted, but owing to the financial embarrassment of the society, the directors could see no other solution. For several years, the directors have been giving their individual notes to pay premiums. The voters at the last election refused to authorize the county commissioners to assist the society.

Ayer-Shepard

At the residence of Mr. Henry Shepard, on Mentor Ave., Mr. Shepard's niece, Miss Katharine J. Shepard became the wife of Mr. Arthur H. Ayer, the popular agent of the Nickel Plate at this place. The couple left for New York City where they will visit, Mrs. Ayer's sister, Mrs. Wells.

Perry has been come exorcised over the diphtheria epidemic in Ashtabula and has adopted rather stringent measures. The reason for the stir is the arrival of the grandchildren of Mr. L. H. Cowdery, the Lake Shore agent, who were sent to Perry to get them out of danger. This aroused considerable feeling and as soon as Mr. Cowdery became aware of it, the children were sent back to their home in Ashtabula. To prevent further visits of that kind, Perry authorities have quarantined against Ashtabula and traveling men and others who want to be welcomed in Perry need to give Ashtabula a wide berth. The Jefferson authorities have, also, quarantined against Ashtabula and it is impossible for the people of that city to get over to the county seat to pay their taxes. This embargo, however, is not worrying the Ashtabulans, who are facing death just now and do not want to be bothered with taxes.

Death of Mrs. Sinclair.

Mrs. Stella Sinclair, wife of Franklin J. Sinclair, died at her home in Willoughby, Friday morning of peritonitis. Mrs. Sinclair has many relatives and friends in Perry Township where she was born and resided until her recent removal to Willoughby.
