Daddy

*Tho you have come to the end of the road
And the sun has set you free,
We'll gather no more in a gloom-filled room
For a soul that has been set free.
We'll miss you - for a long, long time
And travel with our heads held high
Looking to Glory by and by.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master plan
A step on the road to Home.*

We Love You

Obituary

Our daddy and grand-daddy, T. C. Giddings, was born July 4, 1905 in Robertson County, Texas.

Mr. Giddings spent his early childhood and adult life in the areas of Conoly Switch, Highbank and Marlin, Texas.

At an early age he united with the Bethany Baptist Church, under the ministry of Reverend Frank Ervin. He loved his church, in which he was an usher for many years. He was active until the time of his death, October 16, 1993.

T. C., the sixth child of Jim and Annie Giddings, married Ella Rhea Patterson on November 24, 1924. To their union of sixty-eight and one half years, ten (10) children were born, six girls and four boys. Mrs. Giddings passed away seven months ago. A son, Robert, also preceded him in death.

To his family, Mr. Giddings was not only a bright light in their lives, he was their patriarch. He and his wife shared a household that was based upon the principles of Christianity, kindness and love for mankind.

Mr. Giddings leaves to mourn his death: three sons, James, Charlie and Maurice; six daughters, Verna Lee Gilbert, Dorsie Mae Henderson, Leathia Ann Dancy, Zida L. Jackson, Stella Giddings and Ola B. McDade; forty-nine grandchildren, forty-nine great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, two sisters, Ola Carroll and Alice Glenn; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Thanatopsis

So live, that when thy summons comes to join the innumerable caravan, which moves to that mysterious realm where each shall take his chamber in the silent halls of death, thou go not, like the quarry slave at night, scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed.

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave, like on who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.
