Tribute To Mom

I know this lady, her name is Rosell.

She's gone, but I know she is in a good place called Heaven.

But just because she is gone, it does not mean I can't talk to her.

Just because she's gone, her spirit is still with me.

She will always be in my heart.

Also, she was my mother and a good one.

But I will also have my aunts, uncles and three sisters.

I know we won't forget her, because I know I won't.

She would do almost anything to make sure we were all right.

I guess God wanted her to go.

Wherever she goes, I will try to remember her the way she was.

Your Daughter,
Rosell Elaine

Obituary

Rosell Jones Harris was born July 31, 1955 to Luerinza and Rosie Lee Jones in Highbank, Texas. She was the ninth child of nine children.

Rosell accepted Christ at an early age at Zion Rock Baptist Church. She united with Greater Bibleway under Elder Garrett. She later joined True Vine under Rev. Henley, and was presently a member of Christian Tabernacle under Rev. Outland.

Rosell attended public school at Booker T. Washington and graduated from Marlin High School.

She later met and married Rev. Arthur Henley. To this union four girls were born: Arnita, Nanette, Theressa and Rosell Elaine.

Rosell worked in the Waco Independent School District for fourteen years until her health failed.

On July 3, 1994, she married Leonard Charles Harris.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Leonard Charles Harris; four daughters, Arnita Henley, Nanette Henley, Theressa Henley and Rosell Elaine Henley; three sisters, Lillie Turner (Leroy), Addie Runnels (Willie), and Luella Davis (Alfred); four brothers, Richard Jones (Edna), Johnnie Jones (Roselle) and Tommie Jones (Dorothy), all of Houston, Texas and Cornell Jones (Selest) of Marlin, Texas; four grandchildren, Raheem Henley, Tamar Henley, Sha-Monicue Fields and Toy-Shai Henley; three aunts, Elizabeth Anderson and Emma Modkins of Marlin, Texas and Brazella Nelson of Dallas, Texas; special friends, Tremayne Law and Shaffer Fields; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Appreciation

Perhaps you sang a lovely song

Or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a beautiful flower,

If so we saw it there.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so much, whatever the part.

May God forever bless each of you.
