There's a Tree That's Good For the Healing

By Eula M. Allen

• • •

I told a friend the other day that I would soon be coming his way. I told him this body was getting weak surely but slowly, there's a leak. Sometimes I would get up and sit back down, but still I make it, round by round; someone told me about a tree and just one leaf would heal me. I know that death was coming as a thief, so I asked my friend to pull me a leaf; Don't you worry and don't you fret, today I have not one regret. No more prescriptions to be filled, this old body is already healed. This should not take you by surprise, I told you I was going to paradise; I said it wouldn't be very long you'd look for me and I would be gone. I've fought a real good fight, between me and God, it's alright; I don't want you to be sad, rejoice and be exceedingly glad. I'm not suffering, I have no pain, I am going where there's more to gain; I have finally made it to that tree, my friend was waiting with a leaf for me.
