Obituary

*"Life for me is over, don't feel too bad,
For I know that we shall meet again,
Please do not feel too bad.
Just over in Glory, beyond those
"Pearlie gates,"
My God stands ready to receive me
And my golden crown waits."*

Hazel Faye (Brown) Moore demonstrated a love for mankind in obedience to our Lord. Family and friends alike have benefited from her devotion and dedication to helping others.

Faye, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, was a long-time resident of Marlin. She attended Marlin Public school and worked in domestic and health care services for many years. Her work as a cosmetic sales representative in recent years afforded her the opportunity to do mission work on a daily basis. As a member of two social service clubs, she was active in many community projects.

Faye was a faithful member of the Marlin Missionary Baptist Church and served with joy as an usher.

She departed this life November 27, 1990 at Providence Hospital in Waco. Her daughter, Mae Helen Gilbert, preceded her in death.

Survivors: Husband, Fermon Moore, Marlin, Texas; sister, Helen Miller, Los Angeles, California; grandchildren, Jason and Allison Kindle; two great-grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; and several nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Acknowledgment

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
