I Give You Jesus

If the ship of your life
is tossing on the sea of strife,
you need someone.
If you feel so all alone
and your house is not a home,
you need someone.
If it seems life isn't fair
and there's no one there to share
All those lonely days and nights
when things just don't turn out right,
And you need someone to care
and someone to just be there,
you need someone — So, I give you Jesus.

If the pressures all around
keep your spirits to the ground,
you need someone.
If the times that you have tried
with all the strength you have inside
And it seems that you have failed,
remember on the cross he nailed
All the bitterness and grief
to give you peace and sweet relief,
He is that someone that you need.

So, I give you Jesus, He's the peace that passes all understanding,
I give you Jesus, He's the perfect love that casteth out all fear.
I give you Jesus, He's the water that you drink and never
thirst again,
I give you Jesus, my friend, I give you Jesus.
He's all you need.

— Becky Fender

Lord, we thank you for her life. . .

*Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won.*

*And now Mama Julia,
you may take your rest.
We will always love you
dearly but God loves
you best!*

PRECIOUS MEMORIES, HOW THEY LINGER, HOW THEY WILL EVER BLESS OUR SOULS.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

— Tennyson

Obituary

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

II Timothy 4:7

Julia Ann was born the third child of Hezekiah Taylor Sr. and Roberta Travis Taylor on August 31, 1915.

She received public elementary school education at Cedar Valley (Chilton District), Tomlinson Hill (Lott District) and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1936.

She was converted in 1930 in a revival under Rev. E. L. Dozier, baptized by Rev. William Knapp and became a member of McGill Chapel Baptist Church where she remained a member until January 1940 when she united with the Marlin Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorage of Rev. L. J. Jackson. While in high school she was a watchcare member of Providence Baptist Church where she served as Sunday School secretary with Rev. L. R. Lockridge as Pastor.

She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Paul Quinn College and a Masters of Arts degree from Prairie View A & M University. She taught school from 1938 until 1977 in the Chilton and Marlin School Districts.

She married Charles Anthony Wyman Sr. December 25, 1939. To this union two children were born. Mr. Wyman preceded her in death July 24, 1966.

She married Rev. I. M. Murry August 31, 1968. Rev. Murry preceded her in death December 31, 1975.

She has served as sponsor of Girls Auxillary, sponsor of youth division of Order of Eastern Star, Bible teacher of Mary Circle for sixteen years, Teacher of General Mission I, Superintendent of Sunday School and Bible Teacher of the Junior Mission. She was a member of the Ready to Help Club, Order of Eastern Star, Heroine of Jericho, Retired Teachers Association, the A. E. S. Johnson Club and Gamma Pi Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

She is survived by two children, Charlotte Armstead of Dallas, Texas and James Frank Wyman of Austin, Texas. Four stepchildren, Ora Bernice Wilson of Marlin, Texas, Iris Sterling and Seth Ray Murry of Houston, Texas, and Icie Mae Drake of Chicago, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Edna Griffin of Kansas City, Kansas, Mrs. Pinkie Price of Dallas, Texas and Mrs. Dorothy Hodges of Kansas City, Mo.; one brother, Mr. Hezekiah Taylor Jr. of San Diego, Calif.; eighteen grandchildren, Sherri and William Armstead, Charlotte Mustapha, Julian, Jamelle, Hannibal, Idris, and Alexander Wyman, Brian Sterling, Vincent, Terrance and Andrea Murry, Pamela Jackson, Mary, David, and Robert Drake, Once Lee Fly, and Cathy Jones; nineteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

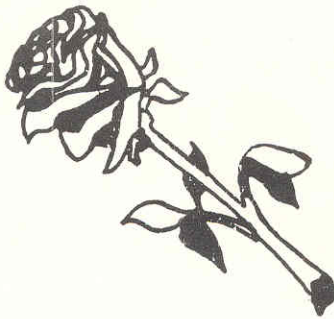

Her home, heart and help were always available for those who needed her. SHE LIVED IN HER HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD, SHE WAS A FRIEND TO MAN.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the Death of His saints.

Psalms 116:15

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Special appreciation to cousins M. A. Tyrone, Lucille Jones, Juanita Slaughter, Dorothy Stricklin Family and Bennie Harris. Also to Barbara Henson, A. Faye Dorsey and Charlene Prince.

We praise God for you and are sincerely grateful to you. You have proved yourselves neighbors as evidence of all your charitable actions.

"Thank You"

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer,
Or came to pay a call;
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song,
If so, we heard it all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
By word or deed or touch,
Whatever was the kindly part,
We thank you, oh so very much!*
