To My Dear Children Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room; Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared; Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan; A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me – but please let me go.*

Acknowledgment

"Thank You"

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer, Or came to pay a call;
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song, If so, we heard it all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, By word or deed or touch,
Whatever was the kindly part, We thank you, oh so very much!*
