"Precious Memories"

EDNA MARAN TAYLOR was born April 16, 1939 to the union of Mr. Jack D. and Mrs. Lydia Laster Taylor in High Bank, Texas. She was the third of eight children. Her parents preceded her in death.

Edna accepted Christ at an early age and joined Zion Rock Baptist Church in High Bank, Texas.

She graduated from Booker T. Washington, and later moved to Dallas where she resided until the Lord called her home on April 1, 1998.

She leaves as survivors to cherish her memories: Seven brothers and sisters, Earnest and his wife Mattie, Jack and his wife Betty, Elijah and his wife Precious, Luedell, Erma, and Pearl and her husband Sherry Vanderbilt; several nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer, Or came to pay a call; Perhaps you sang a cheerful song; If so, we heard it all. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day. Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, Or maybe furnished a car; Perhaps you rendered a service unseen; Near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, By word or deed or touch. Whatever was the kindly part; We thank you, oh so very much!
