A Tribute

*A Precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
And after a lonely heartache,
And many a silent tear.
There will always be a beautiful memory,
Of one we love so dear.*

Obituary

A beautiful and well-spent life came to a close on Sunday, March 17, 1996 at 11:50 p.m.

Lydia (Laster) Taylor was born on February 25, 1910 to Elijah and Lydia Laster in Washington County, Texas. She was one of sixteen children born to this union. All have preceded her in death, along with her parents.

She attended the public schools in Washington County.

She moved to Highbank, Texas, where she met and married Jack Denson Taylor in 1935. They both united with Zion Rock Baptist Church. To this union eight children were born. After his death in 1978, Lydia became a member of the Antioch Baptist Church, where she remained a faithful member until her health failed. She then moved to Dallas, Texas to be with her children.

She leaves to forever cherish and nurture her memory: her loving eight children, Ernest, Jack, Elijah, Erma and Gussie of Dallas, Texas, Ludell of Los Angeles, California, Pearl Vanderbilt of Wahiawa, Hawaii and Edna Taylor of Marlin, Texas; her in-laws, Mattie, Betty, Precious and Shervy; nine grandchildren, Darryl, Keith, Kim, Patrica, Reginald, Regina, Rodney, Shannon and Tamara; ten great-grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.
