Obituary

Sherman Waites was born November 1, 1913, to Mr. Charlie and Jo Anna Waites in Highbank Community, where he grew up and attended school. He was a graduate from Reagan High School in Reagan, Texas. After graduating he enlisted in the U. S. Army.

On April 6, 1946 he married Luddie B. Alford. To this union three wonderful children were born. Two daughters, Patricia Waites White and Algeredia Darnell Waites; one son, Sherman Ray Waites, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Waites was employed at the V. A. Hospital in Marlin for several years. After retiring he enjoyed traveling and fishing.

He departed this life Wednesday, June 5, 1991.

Survivors are: wife, Luddie; two daughters, Patricia White and Algeredia Darnell Waites, both of Los Angeles, California; five grandchildren, Melliesia White, Burtran, Leon, Sherman R. White, Cedric, Warren and Robert Hickman, and one great-grandchild, Richard Ray Shon Phillips, all of Los Angeles, California; two sons-in-law, Jimmy L. White and Earnest Hickman of Los Angeles, California; seven sisters, Lula McDade, Lila Mae Pace, Bessie Mae Newton, Wessie Stout, all of Fort Worth, Texas, Ella Jackson of Dallas, Doris Waites Mack of Royalway, New Jersey, and Joanna Lorder of Huntsville, Alabama; two brothers, Edward Waites of Newark, New Jersey, and Deoliver Waites of Fort Worth, Texas; and a host of other relatives and friends.
