Crossing The Bar

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.*

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Obituary

Herbert L. Williams was born November 17, 1905 in Marlin, Texas to the parents of the late Dan and Maggie Williams.

He professed faith in Christ early in life, joining the Marlin Baptist Church, Marlin, Texas.

He received his formal education at Booker T. Washington High School in Marlin, and Prairie View A&M College in Prairie View, Texas earning two teaching certificates.

He lived in Tulsa, Oklahoma and several cities in Texas. He came to make his home in Dallas in April 1933. He married Katie T. Weathersby in 1942.

He was employed by the Adolphus Hotel for more than 25 years, working as Bell Captain during a major part of this employment. After retiring from the Adolphus, he was employed by the Dallas Housing Authority as assistant manager at George Loving Housing Complex, where he retired after seven years.

He united with Golden Gate Missionary Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas in 1981. He served on the Church's Courtesy Committee from 1982 until he passed in 1993.
