

In Loving Memory
of

Mr. Sam Woodson Jr.

Daddy, we will remember the good times and the bad times, but most of all, we'll remember how you loved Momma and how we all made it through it all."

*Peace I leave with you, my peace I give you.
Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
I go away now, if you loved me,
You would rejoice because I go unto the Father,
For my Father is greater than I.*

On December 10, 1912 in Brazos County, a blessed event took place. Mr. Sam Woodson Sr. and Mrs. Cora Emerson Woodson were blessed with a son. Mr. and Mrs. Woodson decided to name their son Sam Woodson Jr.

Sam accepted the Lord as his personal savior and united with the Upper Zion Baptist Church, serving faithfully on the usher board as well as being active throughout the church.

Sam met, fell in love with, and in 1947 was united in marriage to Miss Ida Mae Roberts. To this blessed union ten children were born.

On Sunday, December 20, 1992 our Father in heaven whispered to Mr. Sam Woodson Jr. to come and rest. Therefore, with peace and calm and no hesitation he fell asleep in the "Arms of Jesus."

He leaves a devoted and caring family to cherish his memories: a loving wife, Ida Mae Woodson of Marlin, Texas; eight daughters, Mrs. Caroline Howard of Plano, Texas, Mrs. Norma Womack of Chandler, Arizona, Mrs. Mildred Cooper of Houston, Texas, Mrs. Sandra Young of Junction City, Kansas, Miss Glenda Woodson of Marlin, Texas, Vivian Harton, Mrs. Shayne Mitchell and Miss Tracie Woodson, all of Dallas, Texas; two sons, Mr. Samuel Edward Woodson and Mr. David Wayne Woodson, both of Marlin, Texas; twenty-two grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

"Granddaddy, we will miss you"
Love, grandchildren and great-grandchildren

Acknowledgment

"Thank You"

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
By word or deed or touch,
Whatever was the kindly part,
We thank you, oh so very much!*
