

Schoolday Memories

When time who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures too
The merriment of the past will stay
And half our joy will renew.

FOOTBALL

Coach Weathers was the best man on the Bulldog squad. He was a leader, good-natured, and "football educated." He could always be depended upon to do more than his part—too much credit for Marlin's victories cannot be given to the "Skipper."

Capt. Paul Boyd was one of the mainstays on the forward wall. "Jinx" was a good captain and a fighting end.

Before the season started, Condy Nichols had never worn a football uniform, but he turned out to be a good player. Before the game was over you could hear 'em shouting "Get that good-looking end."

George Glass was undoubtedly the best tackle in this district. Besides being a good tackler, his long punts were a great help to the Bulldogs.

Paul Powers held down the other tackle position, and did he hold it down—Boy! I'm telling you!

James Barry was a fine guard. He was always giving his best and usually outplayed anything the opposition could offer.

Austin Bryan, although handicapped by injuries, was one of the best guards the Bulldogs have ever had.

Ernest Fannin wasn't very heavy in weight, but made up for this by being the "outfightinest guy you ever saw."

Wyche Springfield showed that with a little experience he will develop into one of the best centers in the state. He'll be a "Whiz" next year, but he wasn't bad at all this season either.

Walton Jones was the best offensive player on the team. He was the best brokenfield runner in B class football. The battle-cry of the opposition was always "Stop Jones!"

Garland Barton was a good running mate for Jones, and was quite adept at carrying the "mail" himself. "Sheriff" was one hundred and thirty pounds of fight.

Wilson Hargrove was one of the best all-around players on the team. He was full of pep and a good blocker and line plunger.

Flavy Davis started the season as a guard, but wound up as a fighting fullback. He was trouble to the other team.

A lot of people wonder how Sam Dollahite played on the first string. True, he can't run with the ball much, but someone has to do the thinking for a football team—and Sam did it.

Lionel Robinson

In Memoriam

*For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom and grace has seen fit to move from our midst Lionel Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Robinson, therefore, be it:

Resolved, that we, the faculty and student body of Marlin High School, hereby tender our most heartfelt sympathy to his loved ones.
