

2016 EXPEDITION: GRAYSON COUNTY

Local historian and 9th generation Grayson County resident, Dusty Williams is putting a new twist on his historical columns for the 2016 year. With Expedition: Grayson County, Williams plans to be in the field with a group of researchers locating and uncovering some of Grayson County's lost and forgotten history and landmarks. He will document the journeys in his column, Trails of Our Past, which is printed in the Van Alstyne Leader. Watch for the articles in January of 2016 and find out what Williams and his group have discovered throughout Grayson County.
