OBITUARY

We have come together today at the call of death, an event that is constantly occurring around us.

Death stares us in the face on all sides. The fields that were green a few days ago are now brown. God teaches in His word, "All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof fadeth away."

Most people look upon death as a dark and gloomy thing, without one redeeming quality; but the death of the righteous is like the lowering clouds that shut out the sun at noonday; it has a bright side and a silver lining.

Death to a Christian is moving out of this cold, friendless, dark world into eternal daylight.

The sudden and what we call untimely death of those who are prepared to go may be regarded as a relief and a blessing to them.

She never refused to help any worthy cause, until her health failed her, but would never forget her church. She would say, "I am willing to divide, but I must help to do for my church too." It seemed that her church and its welfare was always on her mind, and like David, she was always glad when they said, "Let us go into the house of the Lord."

She was born in Groverton, Texas.

She was married to Mr. J. J. White. To that union one son was born.

She moved to Baytown in 1931. She united with the Mt. Rose Baptist Church, and remained until death.

She leaves to mourn two sons, Mr. J. C. White, Baytown, Texas, and Ernest Hill Bashful of Baytown; two grandchildren, one great grand child, one great-great grand child; two sisters, two brothers and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives.
