OBITUARY

*Now my time is up, so don't cry.
I'm only asleep, I did not die.
I have gone to a place of peaceful rest.
I know it hurts, but it's for the best.
The roll was being called, and I heard my name.
Some day you will hear the same.
Remember when we were happy and gay.
My spirit still lives. I'm with God each day.
I have met my beloved Master
I want you to know my soul is happy.*

Frankie Beatrice Wagner Hodge was born March 3, 1908 to Frank and Regusta Whitfield Wagner. She married Arthur Spears, who preceded her in death. She married Henderson Hodge Sr. on March 18, 1939. She united with the Langram Chapel CME Church. Later in life she returned to the church of her youth, Jossierand United Methodist Church. She was active and served faithfully until illness prevented it.

She was preceded in death by:

Daughters Addie Lee Spears Gaines
Myrtese Spears Williams
Irene Jenkins Smith
Grandson Billy Galen Smith
Great Granddaughter Wyvette Machel Smith

She leaves to cherish her memory:

Husband Henderson Hodge Sr., Groveton, TX
Son Maxie Lee James Hodge, Sacramento, CA
Special Grandson Maxie Jerome Smith, Dallas, TX
Life Long Friend Dorothy White, Groveton, TX

Two stepsons, one stepdaughter, thirteen grandchildren, forty-seven great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
