OBITUARY

*Now my time is up, so don't cry.
I'm only asleep, I did not die.
I have gone to a place of peaceful rest.
I know it hurts, but it's for the best.
The roll was being called, and I heard my name.
Some day you will hear the same.
Remember when we were happy and gay.
My spirit still lives. I'm with God each day.
I have met my beloved Master
I want you to know my soul is happy.*

Henderson "Cunch" Hodge Sr. was born January 31, 1912 in Timpson, TX to the Reverend Carey Hodge and Lucinda McClelland Hodge. He moved to Jossierand, TX early in life. He was a member of Langram Chapel UME Church at the time of his death, but enjoyed attending services at Rose Hill Baptist Church and Jossierand Baptist Church. He was united in holy matrimony to Charline Gibson and later to Frankie Wagner. In his later years, he was affectionately known as the "Candy Man" for, prior to his illness, he would give candy to all he met.

He leaves to mourn:

Sons Henderson Hodge Jr., Denver, CO
Maxie Lee James Hodge, Sacramento, CA
James Lee Oneal, Houston, TX

Daughter Mary Wyatt, Dallas, TX
Sister Mrs. Aberstein Hamilton, Houston, TX

A host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.
