A World Without Tears

Just think of a world, a world without tears, where a man can live for a million years with never a grief or ache or a pain and never a thought of dying again.

Think of a world when a man plants a vine. He can sit in it's shade and say this is mine. He will live in the house his own hand has made and naught shall molest, or make him afraid.

Think of a world without bloodshed and strife, where no man dare take another man's life. Where man unto man will unite in peace and malice and hatred forever more cease.

Think of the earth as a globe paradise where mountain and desert will dazzle your eyes, with beautiful flowers and shrubbery and trees with gay butterflies, song birds, and bees.

Think! Just as sure as God's word is true a man shall return to the day's of his youth. His flesh of a child and the words that he speaks will be cheerful and mild.

Think of a world where a lame man will leap from crag to crag like a deer or a sheep. Where none will be deaf or none shall be blind and the dumb shall sing and speak forth his mind.

Think of a world where each man's his brother not esteeming himself above that of another. Where a man unto man will be friend to friend a world without tears, that will never end.

Think of a world where the dead will have vision from their silent tombs that held them in prison. To forever live to love and caress their loved ones and friends in righteousness.

Now a world without tears is not just a dream as man; a person might make it seem. For just as sure as the bible is true a world without tears now lies before you.

And since such a world before you lies wouldn't you like to live in such paradise? And share all the blessings that God has in store for all who world do his will ever more.
