TIS LIFE BEYOND

I watched a sail until it dropped from sight
Over the rounding sea—a gleam of light,
A last, far-flashed farewell and like a thought
Slip out of mind, it vanished and was not.
Yet To The Helmsman standing at the wheel
Broad seas still swept beneath the gliding keel
Disaster? Change? He left no slightest sign
Nor dreamed he of that dim horizon line.
So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanish, peacefully they glide
On level seas, nor mark the unknown bound
We call it death—to them 'tis life beyond.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral piece. If so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.

MAY GOD BLESS EACH OF YOU.
