O B I T U A R Y

On the 15th day of April, 1971, the Angel of Silence came into the room of Mrs. Doris Wilson and with chilly fingers sealed her lips, closed her eyes for a much needed rest.

Mrs. Wilson was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calahan in Groveton, Texas; reared to a very fine young lady; joined the Baldwin Chapel Church when very young; her school life and early church life was spent here. This young lady went to Kansas City, Mo., having relatives there and became acquainted with Mr. Robert Wilson in 1953 she became Mrs. Wilson. To this union four children were born.

Mrs. Wilson joined the South Side Church, 5400 Mont. Gall, Kansas City, Mo., here she worked as an usher. Her task seemed to be make others comfortable. Her pastor was the Rev. Johnson.

We shall sleep, but not forever
There will be a glorious dawn
We shall meet to part, no never
On the Resurrection morn?
Blessed be the Lord that taketh;
Blessed be the Lord that gave.
