When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you
For a little while
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years,
But start out bravely
With a gallant smile,
And for my sake
And in my name
Live on and do
All things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each walking hour
In useful ways,
Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near.
And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky.

Acknowledgement

We, the Family of Fred Benemon, express our sincere gratitude and thanks to those who lifted our heads and lightened our hearts, through the many kind expressions of love and sympathy exhibited during this most trying time. May God bless each and every one of you.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."
Revelation 21:4
