Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or set quietly in a chair...

Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there...

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words...

That any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you!

Officiating

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Alice P. Bowie was born in Colfax, Louisiana on August 25, 1916, the youngest of five children to Thomas and Betty Means Prescott. They all preceded her in death.

Momma Al, as she was affectionately known began her cooking career at Peabody High School in Alexandria, Louisiana. She continued on this path working for Luby's Cafeteria for over 30 years until her retirement. After retirement she worked for several years at Our Lady of Victory school still doing what she loved best.

Alice leaves behind a legacy; one daughter Jean Wesley (Bobby); two sons Charles Phillips (Ruby) and Amos Wesley, III (Gilda); five grandchildren Allila Thompson, Daphne Wesley, Amos Wesley, IV (Felicia), Nwachi Wesley (Candace) and Nikoe Neighbors; one great grandchild LaToya Thompson and one great-great grandchild Cameron C. Clark; great nephew Andrew "Jay" Houston; two adopted sons Moses Johnson and Jimmy Hill; long time best friend Mrs. Mattie Smith and grandchildren Bridget and Kevin Smith; as well as a host of other family and close friends.

Tribute

"The Lord giveth and the lord taketh away." On August 25, 1916 the Lord gave us the honor and privilege of being in the presence of a living angel. Those who were fortunate enough to talk with her, walk with her, dine with her, cry with her, shout with her, be inspired by her, be disciplined by her, pray with her, praised by her, prayed for by her, lectured by her, now know that they have gained strength, honor, love and discipline from her, and because of this, your lives are more complete, yet constantly evolving. Each time she gave of herself to nourish the lives of others, her wings became stronger and stronger. On August 14, 2013 the Lord took her back to his kingdom where he has prepared a special place for her to relish in eternal love and peace, with no more suffering.

"What a wonderful flight."

Precious Memories

Tribute

We are all so very blessed to have had you as a part of our entire lives. You had ninety-six years to spread your love and touch so many hearts. You wrapped your arms around our hearts. We will miss your laughter, advice, and don't let us forget your good ol' home cooking! As the backbone of our family we know you will continue to look down on us and protect us as you always have. Please do not worry, you have taught us all we need to know. It is your time to rest on the bosom of the Lord. We will

Love you always.

Love,
