TO ONE IN SORROW

*Let me come in where you are weeping, friend,
And let me take your hand.*

*I, who have known a sorrow such as yours,
can understand.*

Let me come in – I would be very still Beside you in your grief;

*I would not bid you cease your weeping, friend,
Tears bring relief.*

*Let me come in – I would only breathe a prayer,
And hold your hand,*

*For I have known a sorrow such as yours,
And understand.*

Obituary

Mr. Joe Bush was born August 9, 1900 in New York City. New York, to Robert and Sarah Bush.

He married Miss Syble V. McGeainly on May 16, 1943. He worked as a mail carrier for the Missouri Pacific Railroad until retirement.

His affiliations included the Ligon Chapel C.M.E. Church of Nigton and he was a 33rd degree Mason with a Houston Masonic Lodge. He resided in Nigton the last 24 years of his life.

On the morning of April 18, 1986 the angel of silence came into the Hospital and with chilly fingers, sealed the lips of Bro. Joe Bush, a loving husband. His soul winged flight from this world of sin sorrow and pain, to a place of eternal rest.

There are some lives that disappoint us some impressions of character which we have to revise in later years, but the impression that was formed of Pappy Joe when you first met him remained unchanged to the end of life. When he was a child, he was mannerly and obedient. When a young man, he was respectful to everyone. When he took his place as a grown man, he laid aside childish things and proved himself a worthy man. He has been a source of encouragement to all who worked with him. He will be greatly missed because he was a Christian Soldier, and a real good friend to all.

Survivors include a loving, devoted wife, Mrs. Syble V. Bush of Nigton, Texas, and many, many friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Mr. Joe T. Bush express our sincere gratitude to those who lifted our heads and lightened our hearts through the many kind expressions of love exhibited during this most trying time. That God would bless each of you is our prayer.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."
