The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want:
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

OBITUARY

December 14, 1972

Weep not for the loved ones, whose body we view. For death should bring joy to me, and to you. Mr. Boyd Daniels was the youngest (8th) child of the children born to Mr. and Mrs. Laura Daniels, one of the pioneer families of the Nigton Community. He was born January 4, 1900 and grew up here, attending church and school here. He joined the church at an early age. He moved away to Little Rock, Arkansas in the early twenties where he worked as a train porter. He married Mrs. Hazel Ballard, December 17, 1946, they adopted Jackie Daniels in his (Jackie's) early age. He moved back home December 6, 1965, where he united with Ligons Chapel C.M.E. Church. He parted this life December 11, 1972. He is survived by wife, Hazel and son Jackie of Nigton. Two sisters: Mrs. Georgia Perkins, Lufkin; and Mrs. Florence Cuffie, of Kountze, Texas. A host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives, and friends.
