Obituary

Timothy Lamone "Mo Betta" Dixon was born May 18, 1966 to the union of Othella Jones and Melvin Dixon.

Mo Betta was a father, talented rapper, and a hilarious comedian who had a real zeal for life. When MO walked into a room his infectious personality was contagious. He persevered through many trials and tribulations with a sense of humor never missing the opportunity to crack a joke. His leisure time was spent entertaining, sharing his wisdom, accepting all challengers in chess and he considered himself a dominologist. He was a skilled barber who loved engaging patrons in conversation. Mo ran a good race and fought a good fight. His legacy and memory will endure through generations of family and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memories Christina G. Dixon, Cyrus Luera, Michael Gutierrez, Timothy Dixon Jr., Namdi Ezra Davis, Navaz Elijah Davis. His mother Othella Johnson Neuls and father Melvin (Dorothy) Dixon. Siblings: Melvin Dixon Jr, Alonzo Dixon, Bonita (Atrell) Owens, Othella Nicole (Hossain) Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Recessional

*"I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done, I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and summer days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun, of happy memories that I leave when life is done . "*

*God saw that you were getting tired
And the cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Busy hands to rest.*

*God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

*It's lonesome here without you
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same
Since you went away.*

*When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on."*

*Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, We'll meet again someday."*

*A million times we've missed you
A million times we've cried.
If loved could have saved you ,
You never would have died*
