ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of Mr. Roosevelt Lacy acknowledges with gratitude our most sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy extended us during the hour of our sorrow. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

_____ THE FAMILY

THE 23RD PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

CLAY & CLAY MORTUARY

-OBITUARY-

Mr. Roosevelt Lacy was born in Nigton, Texas on March 5, 1905 to the parents; John O. and Betty Lacy.

He spent his early age in Nigton, Texas, and lived his last ten years in Houston, Texas. He joined Ligon Chapel Church at an early age.

Roosevelt was an inspiration to his friends and neighbors that knew him. He always had time to care and share their problems no matter what his load was at the time. His love and compassion for others always shined bright. Roosevelt Lacy departed this life Sunday, October 12, 1980.

Leaving to mourn his homegoing: two sisters: Mrs. Pricilla Mark of Nigton and Libby Lofton of Houston, Texas; a brother, Maning Lacy of Willis, Texas; nieces, nephews; other relatives and a host of friends.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
