

THE PSALM OF LIFE

Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real, life is honest
And the grave is not its goal.
Dust thou art to dust returneth
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment not in sorrow
Is our destined end the way.
But to act as each tomorrow
Finds us farther than today.

In the worlds broad field of battle,
In the harvest of life
Be not like dumb driver cattle
Be a hero in the strife.

Trust no future, however pleasant
Let the dead past bury the dead
Act, act in the living present
Heart within and God over head.

Lives of great men all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime
And departing leaves behind us,
Footprints in the sand of time.

Footprints that perhaps another sailing
O'er life's solemn mein.
A forlorn and ship wrecked brother
Seeing shall take heart again.

Let us then be up and doing
With a heart for any
Still achieving and persuading
Learn to labor and to wait.
