REFLECTIONS

"To all my loved ones: If it is my time I feel that I have lived my life to the fullest at least the best that I could. "

Mr. Mark did live a full life. It seems that he made the most of every day. He was a hard working man all of his life. Even the last days he was not satisfied unless he was working in the garden or doing something around the house. His favorite sport was fishing. He was very good at it. Not many people knew all the lakes and rivers or could fish them any better than he could. Mr. Mark was very fond of children and there was never a time that he would not stop and give the advice or a word of encouragement. Mr. Mark loved his wife Mrs. Dannie Mark who he was married to for fifty two years until his death.

He leaves his wife, six children, twenty nine grandchildren and sixty five great grandchildren and a host of friends whom he loved very much.

Mr. Mark always had a smile and words of laughter for everyone. If you talked to him for any length of time I guarantee that he would make you smile.

Willie B. Mark
