The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Ye, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

God Knows Best, so never complain —
For "The Pain of Today" is "Tomorrow's Great Gain" . . .
For while we suffer in a physical way
Our Spirit grows stronger from day to day . . .
And each trial we suffer
and every shed tear
Just gives us New Strength to Persevere
As we "climb" the "Steep Hills"
along Life's Way
That lead us at last to that Wonderful Day
Where the "Cross" we have carried becomes a "Crown"
And at last we can lay our Burden Down.
