Ola Faye's Five

Proverbs: 22:6

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Mom, you gave us the best you had for sixty six years and we say:

"Thank You."

You made sacrifices so that we would have a roof over our heads, food, and clothing for that we say:

"Thank You."

You led us, counseled us, corrected us, and prayed with us: for that we say:

"Thank You."

You gave our children (your grandchildren) parts of you that stretched you, but you were still there for them too; for that we say:

"Thank You."

You taught us about God and what it means to have faith, no matter what; for that we say:

"Thank You."

Chose never let us quit or hang our heads in defeat; for that we say:

"Thank You."

You chose to give us life and be our Mom; for that we (Ola Faye's Five), we say:

"Thank You."

"We Will Keep Your Memory Alive Mom."

To My Dearest Family,

Some things I'd like to say, but first of all to let you know that I arrived OK. I'm writing this from heaven where I dwell with God today. Where there are no more tears or sadness, there is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you each morning, noon, and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through. God picked me up and hugged me, and He welcomed me Home. It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone. As for your dearest family, they will join you later on. I need you here to assist me with my great plan. There's much that we have to do to help our mortal man. Then God gave me a list of things He wished for me to do, and foremost on that list of mine is to watch and care for you. I will be beside you every minute, hour, days, weeks and years. When you're sad I'm standing there to wipe away the tears. When you lie in bed at night the day's chores behind you; God and I are with you all through the night. When you think of my life on earth and all those loving years, because you're only human they are bound to bring you tears. Do not be afraid to cry it does relieve the pain. Remember there would be no flowers unless there was some rain.

I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned, but if I were to tell you... you wouldn't understand. One thing is certain, though my life on earth is over; I'm closer to you now than I ever was before. To my very many friends, trust that God know what is best. I'm still not far away from you, I'm just beyond the peak. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb. But together we can do it taking one day at a time. It was always my belief and I'd like for you too, that as you give unto the world, so the world will give to you. If you can help somebody who's in sorrow or in pain, then you can say God at night my day was not in vain. I now know that my life was worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile. So, if you meet someone who is down and feeling low, lend your hand and pick him up. As on your way you go, when you are walking down the street and you have me in mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. When you feel the gentle breeze or the wind upon your face, that's me giving you a great big hug or just a soft embrace. When it's time for you to leave your body, do not be afraid. Remember that you're on a journey and you're coming here to be with us. I will always love you from the mansion God has prepared. Time passes like a blink of the eye, *

"See you soon my dearest family, it really wasn't goodbye."

P.S.
GOD SEND HIS LOVE.
Love Always

Acknowledgment

Tender compassion, a smiling face, helped tears be erased; a whispered prayer a lovely flower nurtured us during our darkest hour. Kind words, food, calls all helped to convey your thoughtfulness. Thank you so much for your generosity. May God bless each of you is our prayer.

~The Family of Ola Faye Stanton-White~

Dinner for the family, and our of town guest, and friends, will be served in the Fellowship Hall of Greater Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church, immediately following the Interment.
