INTRODUCTION

FINALLY, at long last, a dream becomes a reality. You are holding in your hands a work that has been in the making for over 25 years. It has been a long hard road, but I did it. It is my sincere hope that you will not be disappointed. It is the result of the joint effort of too many people to name. You will find some of them listed as references on many of the sketches. I am proud of this book and I hope you will be too. Additional copies are available on a limited basis at P. O. Box 1535, Chiefland, FL 32626.

This book consists of biographical sketches of each of known descendants of Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley, and gives vital statistics about those persons. Included here will be the dates of birth and death, the places of those events and the dates and places for marriages, as well as information about the person's spouse(s) and children. The biographies are freeform in nature and serve to establish more background about the individual than could be provided by pure statistics. This publication is divided into chapters, each chapter representing one of the eleven children.

Each person is identified by a unique number. This number is used to distinguish between family members that may have the same name. The numbering system is explained as follows: Each of the eleven children of Frank and Minerva Swilley is assigned a number, according to his place of birth in the family. Their numbers will not appear on their individual biographies, but will become a part of the number assigned to subsequent descendants. For each generation forward from these eleven children, an additional digit is added to the parent's number, to represent an individual's birth order. As an example, my own number is 10.5.2 because (reading from the right to the left) I am the second child of the fifth child of the tenth child of Frank and Minerva. Using this system, one can quickly ascertain his respective place in the order of the family, and also determine how many generations removed he is from Frank and Minerva. Since I have three sets of numbers, I am three generations removed from the original parents.

The index summarizes all the names that appear in the book along with the page numbers in which they can be found.

This compilation of data on the Swilleys of the Suwannee River Valley has been made possible by the generous sharing of Swilley data by friends and relatives who unselfishly allowed me the honor of being "chief collector". In collecting my notes for this write-up through the years, I am indebted to those people for the information I have used. Everyone has cooperated with interviews, lending books, family papers, photos, or sending copies of notes of Swilley interest. This compilation was built upon that research left us by our beloved "Uncle Clem". A special acknowledgment goes to my husband, Owen F. Baynard, who supported me and accompanied me on many of my research journeys, and who totally took over the tedious task of indexing the many names that appear in the collection as well as providing the expertise needed in the assembly of pages. And last but not least, the cooperation received from my own family members who have sacrificed and carried on my household duties and responsibilities such as meal preparation, cleaning, and laundry, so that I could "type up my Swilley notes" in order that more Swilleys could share in the results of my compilation.

COUSINS: Because some folks have difficulty in understanding how degrees of cousinship are computed, I have included a relationship chart. It is simpler than it looks!

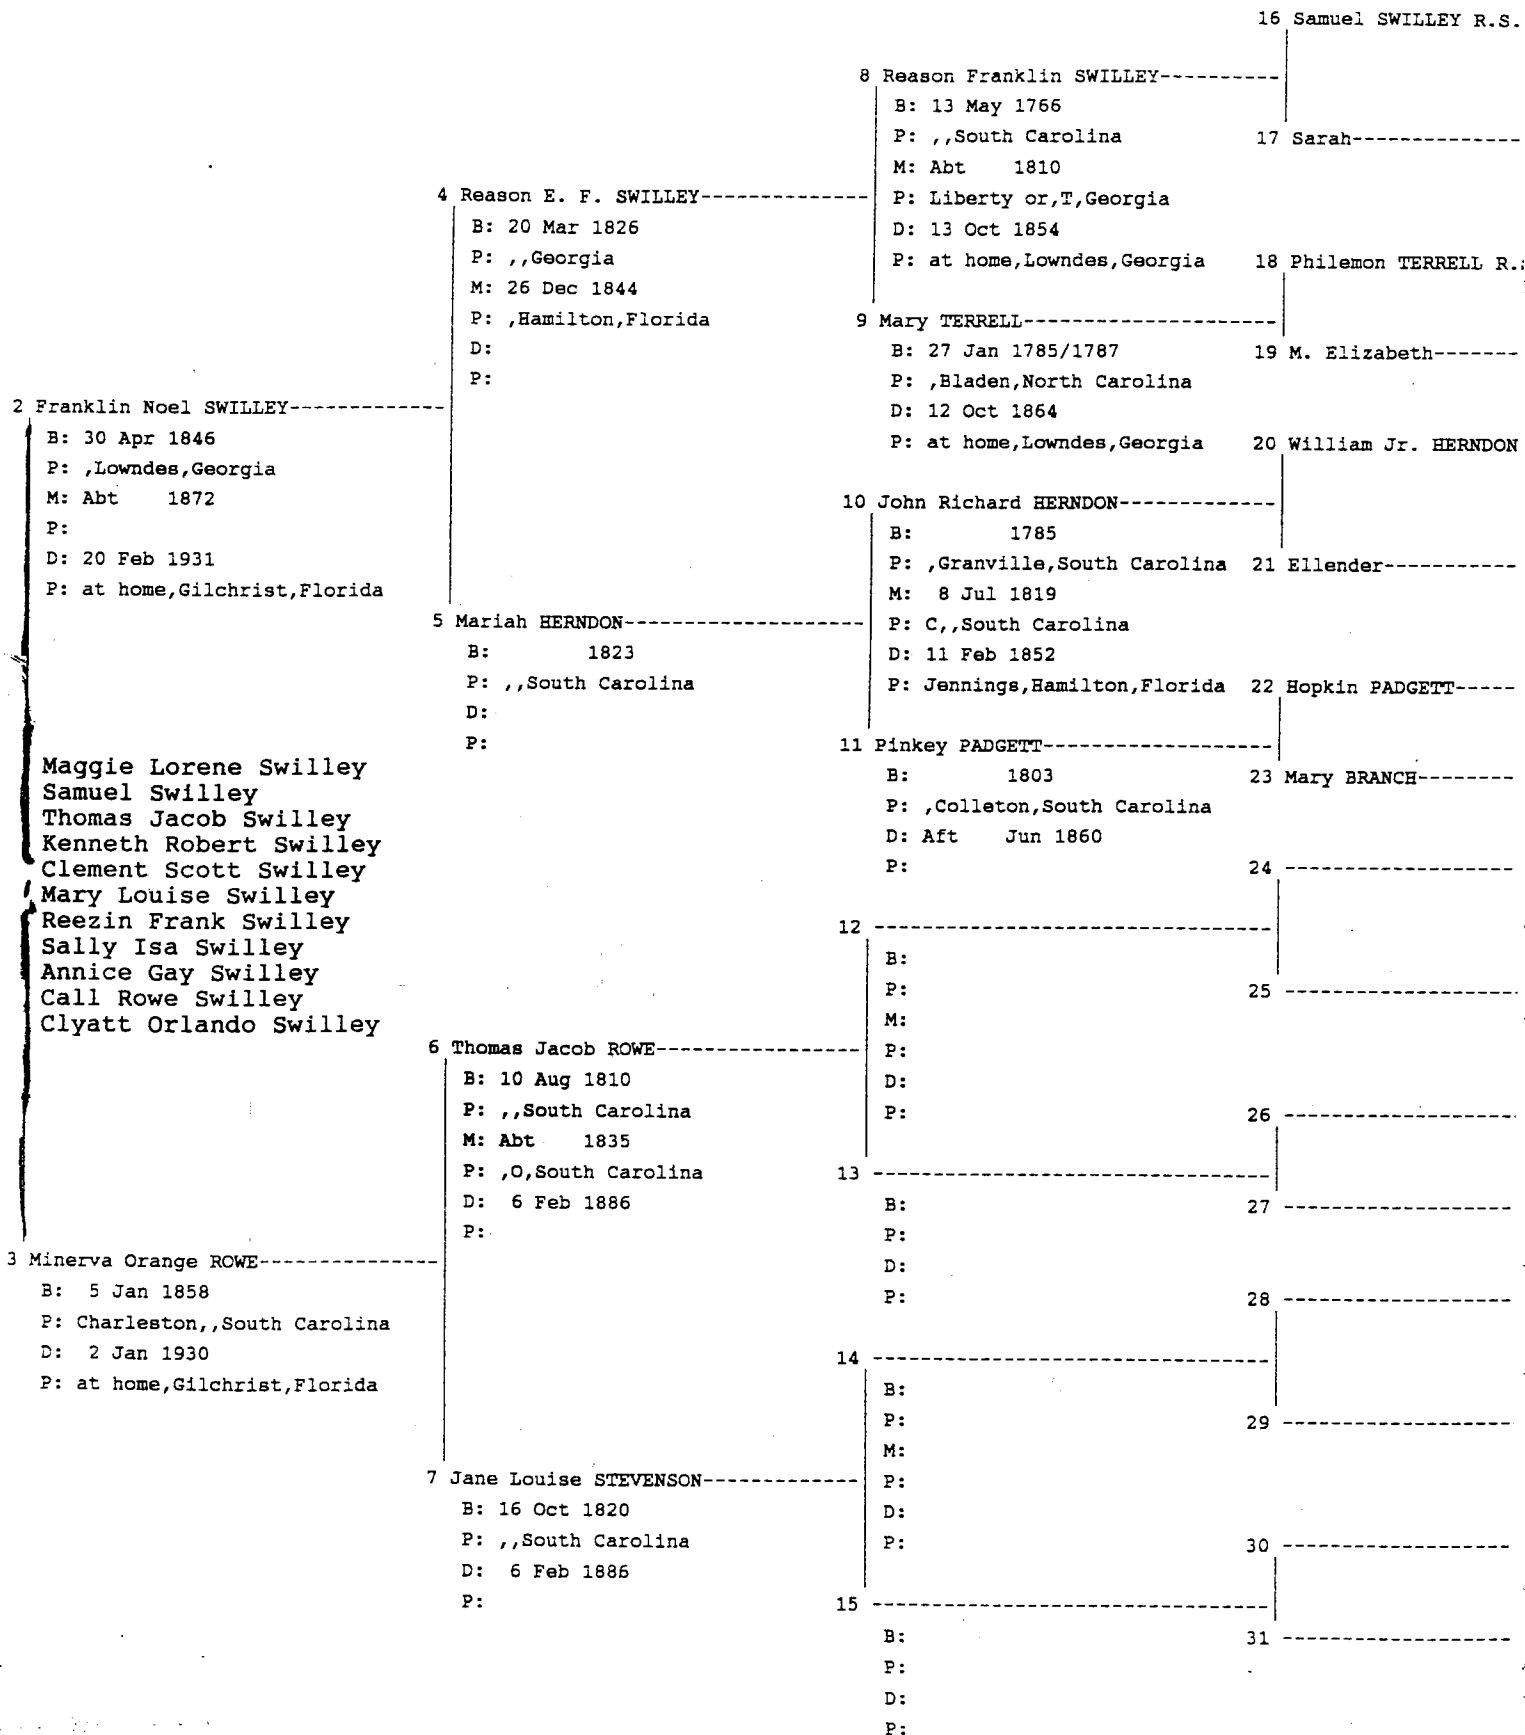

APPEAL FOR CORRECTION OF ERRORS: I shall be most pleased to receive information concerning members of this Swilley family which is either additional to that contained herein or in correction of it. If the reader has any dates to supply, either of birth, marriage, or death, I hope he or she will send them to me. If any old family letters or documents give pertinent and interesting facts not likely to be otherwise generally known, I shall be pleased to receive copies of them. If any family Bibles give data not already in my possession, I shall be delighted to receive copies, photostatic, handwritten or typewritten. I sincerely trust that the number of errors is slight and that the number of contributions of new material will be substantial.

ABBREVIATIONS: The use of abbreviations has been reduced to a minimum. Those used herein include, however, the following regularly found in standard genealogical works:

WWII	World War II
b.	for born
abt.	approximately
d.	died
m.	married
Hsp. or Hosp.	hospital
div.	divorced

States are abbreviated by the two-letter system recognized by the U.S. Postal service.

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF SWILLEY

The name of SWILLEY was derived, in most cases, from the area of Ireland in which the Swilley clan lived--Lough Swilly. It appears in the various spellings of Swilley, Swilly, Swilling, Swelling, Swily, etc. Of the forms mentioned, the first is that most frequently in evidence in America in modern times.

The coat of arms most anciently borne by the family from which the Swilleys of America are believed to be descended, is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Gu.; a harp or. placed between five white roses, two over two over one". In translation, this means that the Swilley Coat of Arms is red with a gold badge and five white roses, symbolic of Irish England.

Samuel, William, Reason (or Reezin), and Franklin are some of the masculine Christian names frequently recurrent in the annals of the Swilleys. One publication based on telephone directories and post office addresses, indicates that in 1972, less than 450 heads of households in the U.S. had the distinguished Swilley name, and in 1970 there were fewer than 1395 people in the U.S. with the Swilley surname. (Dictionary of American Family Names published by Harper and Row). If that is the case, we in the Suwannee River Valley represent a large majority of the clan. Obviously many of us were not counted. Delano Swilley has a copy of this publication if anyone cares to find out whether they are named among the elite.

Among the earliest definite records of the name in America was an American patriot, Sam Swilley. His father was an Irishman from the Swilley Lakes in Ireland who came to America to fight for King George of England. But Swilley loved liberty so much that he joined the American colonists in opposition to British oppression. Tradition places him in Washington's Army. After the Revolution, he married a squaw (woman) who had been scalped by the Indians. She had to wear a wig on her naked scalp. Two sons, Samuel and John Swilley, were born in South Carolina and were also patriots of the Revolution. Our progenitor, Samuel, was born about 1750 and died sometime after May 17, 1817. His service in the Revolution has been certified and each of us who are direct blood descendants, are eligible to join either the Sons or the Daughters of the American Revolution based on his service. An approved line of descent has been established through his son, Reason Franklin Swilley, his grandson, Reason E.F. Swilley, and his great grandson, Franklin Noel Swilley.

Samuel Swilley's son, Reason Franklin Swilley was born on May 13, 1766 and died on October 13, 1854. He married Mary Terrell, who was the daughter of yet another Revolutionary War patriot, Philemon Terrell. They had the following children: Nancy, born January 24, 1811, married Boone; Calvin born March 29, 1812, unmarried; Franklin born November 21, 1813, married Vicy Boyd; Elizabeth born January 16, 1815, married John Lee; Senie A. born February 28, 1818, died young; Jesse A. born December 1819, married Cane Strickland; Eliza born 18??, married John Boyd; Reason E.F.

born March 20, 1826, married Mariah Herndon on December 26, 1844; Samuel S. died in Confederate States Army; and William Madison who married Rebecca Daniels and lived on Georgia-Florida line which was then Lowndes but is now Echols County, Georgia.

Reason Franklin Swilley's son, Reason E.F. Swilley was married to Mariah Herndon, granddaughter of William Herndon who was born 1740 in Carolina County, Virginia and moved to North Carolina, then to South Carolina, where he died. His son Richard Herndon was born in Granville, South Carolina in 1785, and married Pinky Padgett, born in Colleton District of South Carolina in 1803. They had the following children: Isham, born 1820; Mariah, born 1823, married Reason E.F. Swilley; Miranda born 1826, unmarried; Charles born 1826, came to Judson, Levy County with his two sons Richard and Jack about 1892. They lived with Frank and Nub (Minerva) Swilley about two years. Miranda spent the winter of 1894 also with the Swilleys; Martha born 1831 married William R. Downing on November 26, 1859; Hansford born 1833, married Nancy Westberry; Phillip born 1837, married unknown; James born 1839, married Eliza Downing; Daniel born 1843, married Zilpha Wester; Levi born 1846, married Nancy Downing; Patience born 1849, married unknown. Charles Herndon bought a place from Frank Swilley and built and lived at Judson for a few years, then he moved to Texas. Martha Herndon Downing lived on the old Swilley place with her two sons for a time at Judson, then they moved to Lafayette County near Cross City. Her sons, William and Elmore Downing, lived until their death around Pumpkin Swamp of Lafayette (now Dixie) County.

The children of Reason E.F. Swilley and Mariah Herndon Swilley are Franklin Noel, born April 30, 1846, married Minerva Orange Rowe of Orangeburg, South Carolina in 1872, but then living in Providence, Columbia County, Florida; William Hubert, married Rebecca Rowe; Reason, married Martha Stanaland and lived at Wimauma, Florida; Elijah married Missouri Feagle and lived in High Springs; Jesse married twice; Mary married John Porter and lived in Lake City, and after her death, her sister, Selaney became his common law wife and had two sons; Mattie married Henry S. Smith and lived near High Springs.

Minerva Orange Rowe was the daughter of Thomas Jacob Rowe who married Jane Louise Stevenson in Orangeburg, South Carolina, 1835. He was born August 10, 1810 and died February 6, 1886. Jane Louise Stevenson was born October 16, 1820 and died February 6, 1892. They had the following children: Margaret Ann born June 9, 1836, married John Fralick, died August 29, 1900; William born October 1839, died young; Martha Elizabeth born January 13, 1840, married Lewis Gay of Providence, Florida, died August 26, 1914; John Thomas born November 10, 1842, served in Confederate States Army and moved back to Arkansas, died September 25, 1887; Mary Bass born April 26, 1846, married Dorman Weeks, died June 26, 1897; Rachel Jane born October 17, 1847, married Hubert Gay of Trenton, Florida, died January 17, 1895; Rebecca Frances born April 22, 1850, married William Hubert Swilley who was killed by a rattlesnake bite, then married Edd Varn, died August 18, 1902; Sarah Alice born October 6, 1852, married Newton T. King a Baptist Minister; died July 15, 1918; Samuel Marion born June 10, 1855 and lived at Hampton, Florida, married twice, died October 7, 1916, and Minerva Orange born January 5, 1858, married Franklin Noel Swilley in 1872, lived at Judson Community 5 miles SE of Trenton, Floirda, died January 2, 1930. All the above children were born at Orangeburg District, South Carolina. The last child, Ada Josephine was born October 26, 1860 in Columbia County, FLorida, married Taylor Andrews and lived at Hampton, Florida, died September 29, 1930.

The above information is primarily based the research compiled by Clement Scott Swilley on July 24, 1964 and has since been verified, edited and extended by Linda Robinson Baynard as of March 10, 1993.

Additional research on our forebears places us in heraldry and nobility, but it is not the intent of this publication to make such information available. The information that is provided hereinabove is included because it represents a near lifetime of work and research done by our dear "Clem Swilley", and in the opinion of the compiler, he should be given proper credit and recognition for this manuscript.

Franklin Noel Swilley was known as Frank or F.N. to most of his acquaintances. He was born in Lowndes County, Georgia, but his parents were from the Carolinas. Some of the more memorable things about Frank were his long tapering white beard so distinguished that he was hardly recognizable without it, and the fact that he was known to imbibe in the alcoholic beverages from time to time. His wife, Minerva Orange Rowe, was known to most people as "Nub". Her ancestors also made the move southward from the Carolinas. One of the things most remembered about Nub is that she smoked a corn cob pipe. She had lived at least part of her life in Providence, Columbia County, Florida before she was married, but her parents are from South Carolina. Some records show her given name to be spelled Manerva. Minerva was the first president of Pine Grove Baptist Church's WMU, and Vice President of the Harmony Associations WMU. Grandpa Swilley celebrated Memorial Day in a big way, with all the family coming over for a big get-together each year in May. Many of our relatives from southern Georgia would also be there. They would party all day long. This Memorial Day celebration got changed around several times to several places, and eventually came to be the beginning of our Annual Swilley Family Reunion at Hart Springs, held each year on the fourth Sunday of July. Grandpa and Grandma had an old pendulum-swing mantel clock that has been passed down through the generations. During the latter part of their life, the clock was given to their last son remaining at home, Call. Call's wife Callie gave the clock to their youngest child, Mary Lee. That same clock is still in the family--in the possession of Mary Lee's youngest child, LaWanna Clyatt Reaves. Frank and Nub had a long life together, and when he lost his wife in 1930, Frank never left her bedside until they came to remove her for the actual burial. After her death, Frank had his choice of living in any of four homes in the community of Judson. At different times, he might be found living with one or the other of his sons, Call or Clyatt, or with his daughter, Lou, or even at the Horne home. He had developed a habit of going off from any of these homes without telling anyone, and would soon turn up to stay at another for awhile, so no one was ever concerned about him. Because of this peculiar habit, when he fell dead crossing a fence in the field between his son Call's place and his daughter Lou's home, no one was concerned about his absence, and it was a couple of days later before his body was discovered by Luther Read. When he was discovered, the family brought his remains over to Lou's to prepare a coffin for his burial which had to be that same night due to the extreme decay. Apparently Frank never learned to write very well, as he was listed on the census records as not being able to write. The only person in the family who knew what Frank's middle initial stood for was his grandson, Delano Swilley. Delano said that he had always been told by his father that it was Noel. Some family records indicate that perhaps Frank's first given name was actually Francis, but the consensus of his grandchildren is that it is indeed Franklin, as many of them bear that part of his name as their own.

SWILLEY, KENNETH ROBERT

1882-1943

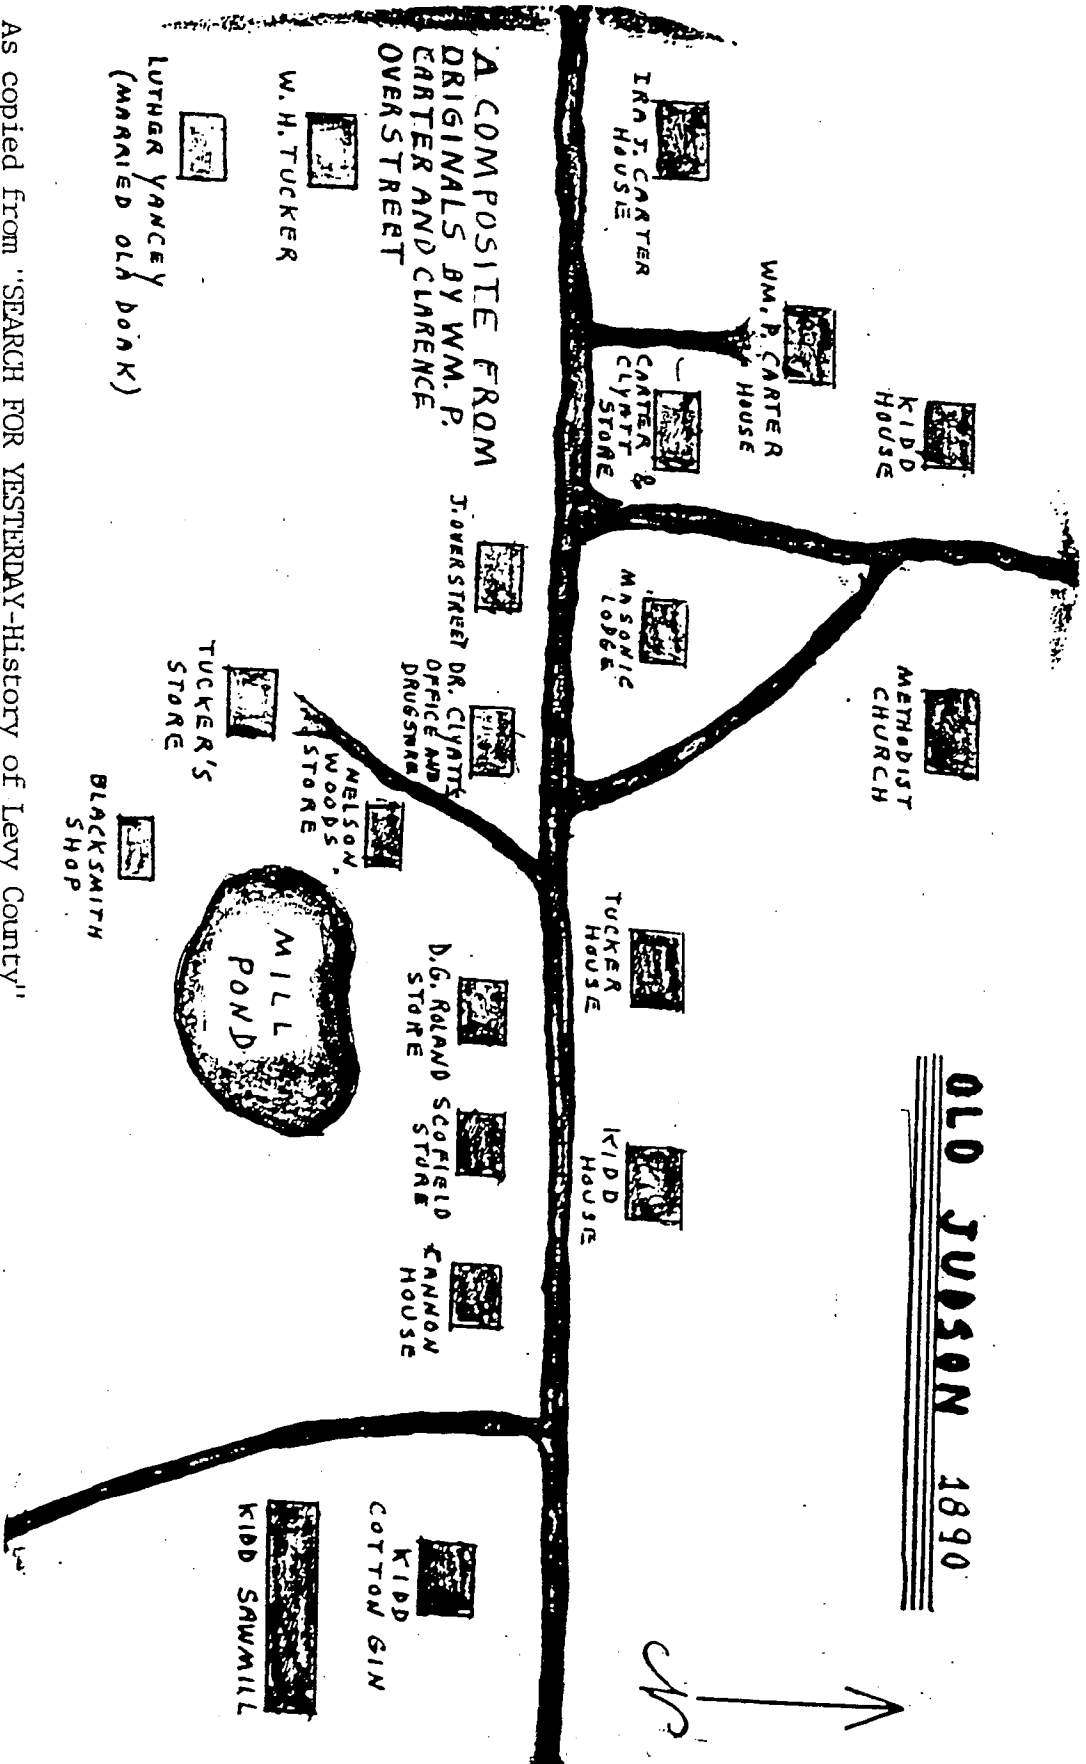

GILCHRIST

Kenneth Robert Swilley was born on August 28, 1882 in Alachua County, Florida, the son of Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley. Kenneth was never married. He suffered from a peg-leg for the better part of his life. He claimed that he had to have his leg amputated from infection caused by a thorn that his father would not let him stop work long enough to remove. Callie Swilley recalls the day the doctor came to the Swilley home to do the surgery. Although Callie and her family lived down the lane, she said she could hear him crying out in agonizing pain. He built a little home for himself, but depended on his mother to prepare most of his meals. Tradition has it that he would hobble down the lane to her home each and every evening for a bucket full of "vittals" to carry back with him for the following day. Land records show that he deeded land to Cole Horne and to Murray and Luther Read as late as 1941, but he died before 1943. As there are no descendants through Ken's line, his death date is only approximated. It was never recorded in the Bureau of Vital of Statistics between the years of 1941 and 1944. Family members recall that he died at home at the approximate age of 61 years. Ken was not able to write and could do very reading, if any.

CHAPTER FIVE

LOU

CHAPTER FIVE
"LOU"

SWILLEY, MARY LOUISE

1887-_____

GILCHRIST

Mary Louise Swilley was the daughter of Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley. Lou was born on September 29, 1887 in Alachua County, Florida. She married Mark Twain Jones Sr. on February 19, 1905. He was born on December 6, 1876 in Alachua County, Florida. His mother was born in Georgia and according to his son, Artell, Mark's mother was from North Carolina. Mark and Lou built a nice home in the rural Judson area of Gilchrist County, Florida, just west of the Read homestead. This brick and frame construction home was still standing and in good repair in the early 1990's and was occupied by Mark's niece, Ruby Bennett. Mark passed away on March 9, 1933 at the age of 56 years and is buried at the Pine Grove Baptist Cemetery in rural Levy County, Florida. Callie Swilley (Lou's sister-in-law) records that after Mark died, Lou was obliged to get out to make a living for her family, and as a result, her daughter, Theda spent a great deal of time in Callie's home. She was about the same age as Callie's oldest daughter, Dessie, and they became great pals as well as cousins. According to Callie, Dessie would take a quilt and put it out on the porch floor, then fill the old coal iron full of hot coals. The girls would iron and drink water sweetened with syrup while they ironed. Many times Theda would stay night and day. One of Callie's favorite memories to share about Theda was that after she started going with and married Gordon Wright from Newberry, she would sing "I Had a Thrill on Newberry Hill". Callie also has a favorite story to share about Lou. It appears that Lou never would drink coffee, but she told her son Grover one day to go the kitchen and tell his dad that she wanted a cup of coffee. Grover had heard her say that it would turn you black, and he didn't want no black Mama--so he never did tell his daddy. On the more serious side, Callie avows that Lou was her mentor when it came to motherhood and raising a family, and that many times she sought and accepted the advice of Lou, especially during the years that Callie's husband was off in the war leaving Callie with young children at home to raise by herself. Lou and Mark had a family of eight children. According to Artell, their oldest child Grover died at the age of 13 years probably caused from an accident when their horse kicked him the side of the head. Grover was the only child born at the time of the 1910 census, (the census listed him as 2 years old). Their second child lived only about nine months. According to their daughter Theda, Lou had tied her baby into a chair while she went to hang out some laundry. The baby struggled free and fatally inhaled some hot ashes from the fireplace. Their third child, Mark Twain Jr., reached adulthood and was married, but also died a tragic death by lightning. Their next child lived to be about eighteen or nineteen when he died as a result of a gunshot. According to his brother, Artell, the death was intentional but no details are known. Incidentally Thomas was the

CHAPTER SIX

REEZIN

CHAPTER SIX
"REEZIN"

SWILLEY, REEZIN FRANK

1890-1918

GILCHRIST

Reezin Frank Swilley is the seventh child born to Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley. He was born on November 4, 1890 in Alachua County, Florida. Some family records give his birth year as 1889, but 1890 is inscribed on his tombstone. He was married on August 30, 1911 at the James Horne home in Levy County to Julia Harlie Horne, born at home on May 12, 1895 in Levy County, Florida, the daughter of James Napoleon and Eugenia Macenia Keene Horne. Reezin and Harlie kept a family Bible with dates and names, but the Bible was lost when their home was destroyed by fire. After that, Harlie wrote everything down on a piece of paper for her daughter, Gladys. He died on October 23, 1918 in the Judson area of what was then Alachua County, Florida, at the age of 27 years. Reezin had a white stallion and his death was attributed to pneumonia contracted while caring for the horse. On the same hour and the same day of his death, Reezin's youngest brother who also lived in the Judson settlement, lost a baby son, and that baby was buried at the head of Reezin's gravesite in Pine Grove Cemetery. Their last child was born a few months after his death, and even though she was a girl, she was named Reezin in his honor. Harlie survived her husband by a number of years, and had several more children by her second husband, Henry Jackson (Jack) Cason, born on July 29, 1870. Jack and Harlie were married on June 11, 1919 at her home in Judson. Mr. Cason was a widower and brought nine children into this marriage of his own, besides Harlie's five children and the five that Jack and Harlie had together. She died at the age of 41 years on August 20, 1936, at the Lakeland Hospital, Lakeland, Florida. Her tombstone in the Pine Grove Cemetery states simply: Harlie Swilley, wife of H.J. Cason. This would imply that even though she married Mr. Cason, her family preferred to also remain associated with the Swilley clan. Mr. Cason survived his wife by several years. He died on June 11, 1951 and is buried in the Kirkland Cemetery, Chiefland, Levy County, Florida. Each year there is a "Swilley-Cason Reunion" held for all interested relatives, descendants and friends. The following children were born to Harlie:

MOORE, THOMAS JEFFERSON

1919-1989

8.5

Thomas Jacob Moore was born on November 9, 1917 in Newberry, Alachua, Florida, the son of George Gordon and Sally Isa Swilley Moore. T.J. was listed as CM2-C in the U.S. Navy in a July, 1944 issue of the Gilchrist County Journal and was still in the service in November of the same year. T.J. had his big toe shot off while in the service and got to go home earlier because of his injury. T.J. lived with some folks in Branford for a time, then he went to Newberry to work for Bud Dalson. He went to work at the Danport Dairy in Jacksonville before and after his stint in the Navy. According to his brother, Johnny, T.J. was poor, poor, poor, but when Johnny made it known to his brother that he was not going back to the orphanage, T.J. arranged from Johnny to stay with their cousin Sam Swilley for a season. During the times that Johnny and their sister Margie were still in the orphanage, T.J. would make sacrifices until he could afford to send one-way bus fares for them to visit him. He was married to Rossie Mae Mooney on July 29, 1938. She was born on March 1, 1923, the daughter of Norman and Jewell Cleo Miller Mooney. T.J. and Rossie Mae had several children before they were divorced. She then married Willie Purvis, and had another child, Susie, who married a Beard. After his divorce from Rossie Mae, T.J. went to Biloxi, Mississippi where he married again on February 10, 1946 to Inez Herring. She was born about 1920 in Mississippi, the daughter of Eddie P. and Catherine Herring. They also had children but information about them is available, except that there was a set of twin boys born. T.J. died at his home in Biloxi on March 27, 1959 and was buried at the Paramount Cemetery, Stone County, Mississippi. Inez had

MOORE, GEORGE WILLIAM 1922-19?? 8.8

George William (Billy) Moore was born as a twin on November 17, 1922 in Judson, Alachua, Florida, son of George Gordon and Sally Isa Swilley Moore. His twin did not survive. Billy, his brother Johnny, and his two youngest sisters were all placed in the Baptist Children's Orphanage in Lakeland, Florida, after the death of their mother in 1934. His older married sister, Minerva Bass, attempted to care for her younger siblings for awhile, but the decision was made to put them in a home for their own benefit. Billy left the Children's Home and joined the C.C. Camp during WWII. He was the first to leave the home, except for his baby sister, Orba Lee, was adopted soon after their arrival. Dates of his military career are unknown, but the Gilchrist County Journal lists him in the service in their August 1944 issue. Billy was married in California to Dorothy ?? and they had a daughter, Ella Mae. Billy and Dorothy were divorced but date is unknown. Ella Mae was staying with her Uncle Lester in California when Billy got out of the war. Billy and Ella Mae also lived with Billy's sister Minerva, for about three years around 1950 until he married again to Geraldine Feagle. Ella Mae also lived with Billy and Geraldine for awhile, then went to some of the Feagle family. Her whereabouts at the present time are uncertain. The date of his death is not known, but he was not listed as a survivor on his sister's obituary of 8/4/89, so he presumably passed away prior to that date.

MOORE, JOHNNY GEORGE GORDON 1926-_____

8.11

Johnny George Gordon Moore was born on April 17, 1926 at Cherry Sink, Trenton RFD, Levy, Florida, the son of George Gordon and Sally Isa Swilley Moore. When Johnny enlisted in the Service, he dropped all his middle names simply as Johnny Moore. After his mother's death, Johnny brother and younger sisters were sent to the Baptist Children's Home in Lakeland, Florida. His baby sister was adopted right away, but Johnny and the others remained there until they got old enough to be out on their own. Johnny left the Children's Home and came to live with his sister Minerva Bass and her family when he was about 16 years old. He also lived with his cousin, Sam Swilley for one plowing season before going into the Navy. Johnny states that all his family's names and dates were listed in a family Bible, but he apparently left it in the attic when they moved and it cannot now be located. He also states that although his actual birthday is April 16, 1927, it was recorded in his sister's Bible as April 17, 1926, and he used that dated to get in the Navy since it made him one year older. His blood type is recorded as "B", but it really is AB. His military records listed him as USN, Protestant, 9/43, Navy, 556-98-47. When Johnny recalls his past, he states that he worked unloading some benches for his cousin Finnis Brown, when there was some confusion about axe and an altercation with his wife Leola, and subsequently a divorce between the two of them. He tells the story that his Grandpa Frank Swilley once caught him bent over smoking his Grandma's corncob pipe.??, and that he made history by having the fastest homing pigeon. Of the orphanage, Johnny states that he remembers Christmas-time as a time when each of the orphans got a dime and a piece of fruit. Normally gifts included pennies which were called coppers at that time. He remembers that his sister's first husband, R. L. Bradley, was in the orphanage too, as a worker, and that Mr. Bradley first asked for the hand of a Mrs. Johns at the orphanage before he married Margie. Johnny, who was nicknamed "Happy", got his older brother Billy's job of ringing the bell and building the fire for breakfast after Billy left the orphanage. Johnny was married on May 16, 1948 in Folkston, Georgia to Betty Jo Smith. She was born in Lakeland, Polk County, Florida on February 18, 1931, the daughter of Albert and Patricia Olivia Brownie Smith. Johnny was in a careless train accident in Indiana on 5/10/74 where he broke both legs and neck as a rail came across his legs. He could retire since he had worked with the railroad for 40 years and get a full pension. But after a year of healing, he went back with the railroad. Their daughter Betty's husband was also a railroad man, as well as her brothers Malcolm and Tom. Their other son, Johnny Albert, is a road superintendent up in New York and has a home about 6 miles from Johnny and Betty's summer place. Johnny is probably the only person who has had any contact with his baby sister who was adopted from the orphanage since they have become adults, and bonds were not reunited at that contact. One of the things Johnny and his wife enjoy most in life is their hobby as gardeners and nurserymen. Johnny justifiably prides himself in his ability to grow beautiful orchids. Johnny and Betty have the following children:

MOORE, ORBA LEE

1931-_____

8.12

Orba Lee Moore was born on April 18, 1931 in the Judson Community of Gilchrist County, Florida, the baby daughter of George Gordon and Sally Isa Swilley Moore. Tradition in the family records indicates that there may have been some disagreement between her parents over what she was to be named, and she was also known by a second name, Lytie Vergil Moore. To complicate matters even more, her only living brother, seems to recall that she may actually have been named Audrey Lee, although most family members tend to agree that her given name was Orba Lee. The issue is not important however, because her life was to take an important turn and she would be given a new legal name altogether. After the death of her parents, Orba Lee and three of her siblings were placed in the Baptist Children's Home in Lakeland, Florida. Orba Lee was an extremely beautiful baby and was adopted very shortly afterwards as the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Morris Tillman from Jacksonville, Duval, Florida. Probably because of her striking beauty, they had her name legally changed to Shirley Temple Tillman. She married Homer G. Lindsey of Jacksonville, Florida. He is the son of a Baptist preacher and some cousins have seen Shirley as an adult at church meetings, although no introductions were made. Little personal contact has been made with Mrs. Lindsey by the members of her natural family, but from what can be determined, she is happy and content with her adoptive heritage and has no desire at this time to become acquainted with her blood relatives.

RELATIONSHIP CHART

You will note that the two upper columns are outlined in heavy lines. These are the common progenitor and his descendants. "CP" stands for common progenitor, the one who is the head of the two lines of descendants. "S" is his son or daughter as the case may be; "GS" his grandson or granddaughter "GGS" his great grandson or granddaughter; "2GGS" his second great grandson or granddaughter, and so on down to his eighth great grandson or granddaughter.

All the diamonds inside these heavy lines show the relationship between his descendants. By following columns "1" from both sides of the chart we find they cross on the "B" diamond, showing that the sons of the common progenitor are brothers. By following columns "2" to the center we find they cross at the "1C" diamond, indicating that grandsons of the common progenitor are first cousins to each other. And so on down: his great grandsons are second cousins; his second great grandsons are third cousins; his third great grandsons are fourth cousins, etc.

To this point few people have trouble in figuring relationships. It is when they start to figure the "cousinship" and "times removed" that they have difficulty. But with this chart you will find no trouble with any combination up to the tenth generation. Say you want to figure your relationship to a distant cousin. You are eight generations removed from the common progenitor, or his sixth great grandson. Your "distant cousin" is six generations removed or his fourth great grandson on another line. To figure your exact relationship simply follow columns "8" on the one side and "6" on the other to where they cross and you will find "5C 2R" indicating you are fifth cousins twice removed.

Call Rowe Swilley was the older child of a pair of twins, the last children born to Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley. Call was born on January 13, 1896 in what was then Alachua, but later made into Gilchrist County in 1926. He lived in the Judson settlement at the site of his parent's homestead all his life. The property remains in the family, and is presently owned by Call's youngest son, Angus Swilley. Call was married to Callie Mable Fralick, daughter of Johnson (Moss) and Mary Alice Markey Fralick at the Fralick home in Levy County, Florida by Mr. Rufus Tucker, J.P., on June 5, 1918. His body was not shipped home until after the war, in February of 1948, and by that time, Elmer's wife, Ruth Gwendolyn Sanchez, had remarried. Elmer and Ruth had no children, but Ruth did have children by her second husband, S.K. Evans, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Swilley lost another boy--Franklin Delano. ROBINSON, Aaron Lemuel 1947-_____ 10.5.1

Aaron Lemuel Robinson was born January 30, 1947 in Gainesville, Alachua County, Florida, the son of Winfred Lemuel and Pansy Marie Swilley Robinson. He served in the U.S. Army for one term during the VietNam Conflict, and contracted malaria while in service. The illness plagued him for several years after his release. He married four times, but other than adopting one child, Michael Justin Robinson, who was born on April 29, 1975 at Shands Hospital, Gainesville, Florida to his third wife from a prior marriage, he did not have any children except by his fourth wife. This adoption was recorded in July, 1978 in the Levy County Courthouse. His first marriage was to Mrs. Barbara Kay Bishop Hogge, born October 27, 1944 in Clovis, Curry County, New Mexico, the daughter of Shelby D. and Ruby Marie Steelman Bishop. They were married on July 9, 1968 at Folkston, Charlton County, Georgia and divorced in 1974. Barbara had four children from a previous marriage (Andy, David, Bobby, and Cynthia) who were all partially raised by Mr. Robinson, and at least one of those children (Andy) uses Robinson as his legal surname. His second marriage was to Sharon Sue Bedford, born July 4, 1957, the daughter of James R. and Mary J. Bedford. They were married on January 30, 1975 in Bronson, Levy County, Florida and divorced in May 1976. His third marriage was to Mrs. Dorothy Ann Fuquay Pate, born July 4, 1947. They were married April 15, 1977. As strange as it may seem, Mr. Robinson actually did have two different wives who were born on Independence Day ('firecrackers', as he refers to them). His fourth marriage was to Susan Ann Jerrels, born May 10, 1963, at Alachua General Hospital in Gainesville, Florida, the daughter of Rubin R. Jr. and Geneva Jerrels. They were married in the Everglades of Broward County, Florida on January 1, 1981. Their children are:

SWILLEY, CLYATT ORLANDO

1896-1976

GILCHRIST

Clyatt Orlando Swilley was born on January 13, 1896 in rural Trenton, which was then a part of Alachua, Florida, but later formed into Gilchrist County. He was the younger of a pair of twins, the last children born to Franklin Noel and Minerva Orange Rowe Swilley. Clyatt was named after the doctor who delivered the twins, Dr. Orlando S. Clyatt. Clyatt was married on December 3, 1916 at his parent's home in Judson, Florida, to Cerulia Ann Sheffield, born in Florida on March 11, 1900, the daughter of James Dudley and Lorena (Lena) Gertrude Williams Sheffield. After their marriage they lived for a short while in the Judson settlement, in the old Bartram Schoolhouse. His twin brother Call, and Call's bride, Callie, also moved into the opposite end of that schoolhouse after they got married in 1918. It was while they were living here that Clyatt and Cerulia had their first child, Hertha Lee. The baby was born September 20, 1917 but he was a sickly child and died at the age of one year, on October 23, 1918--the same day and at the same hour that Clyatt's brother, Reezin passed away. The baby was buried at the head of his Uncle Reezin's grave in the Pine Grove Cemetery, Levy County, Florida. Dr. Clyatt was the local doctor at that time in this community, and he was the attending physician for both Reezin and Hertha Lee. The next child born to Clyatt and Cerulia was also a boy and he was named after Reezin. Not long after the death of their baby, Clyatt and Cerulia moved to the Plant City area of Hillsborough County, Florida, but it has not been determined how many of their other children were born before they made the move that became their home area for the rest of their lives. Clyatt lost his wife in September of 1975 just one year before he too passed away, on December 10, 1976 in Plant City, Hillsborough, Florida, at the age of 80 years old.
