SHELLEY LYNN ABOUD
1/4/54 - 8/21/07

Preceded in death by her father, John Aboud (2000), and her mother, Emily C. Aboud (2006), survived by her siblings, Michael (Sally), John E. (Norma), Paula (Terri), and Jean, and her partner, Karakwennenta, as well as nieces and a nephew. Shelley was a graduate of Tucson High School (1972), the University of Arizona (1976), and UA College of Law (1979). She practiced law part-time in the family firm of ABOUD & ABOUD, P.C. in Tucson, and she also farmed coffee and macadamia nuts in Kona, Hawaii. Shelley was avidly interested in alternative medicine, the environment, sports, and women's issues. She will be remembered also for her passion for nature, her sense of ethics, and her devotion and loyalty to her family and others close to her. A "Commemoration of Shelley's Life" will be held on Saturday, September 8, 2007, 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., with a Remembrance Service to begin at 6:00 p.m., before sunset, at EAST LAWN PALMS in the Nature Garden area (5801 E. Grant Road). In lieu of flowers, please contribute to the Tucson Centers for Women and Children or the Community Food Bank in Shelley's name.
