

Arizona Daily Star
29 Jul 2007 P. B8

HUGHES, Melissa Kay
13 Sep 1920 - 6 Jul 2007

Melissa Kay Hughes P. B8

born September 13, 1920 in Liberty, Mississippi, passed away July 6, 2007 in Tucson, AZ. Kay was predeceased by her parents, George K. Broadway Sr. and Christine Hurst. She is survived by her children, John Michael Hughes II of Tucson, and Nancy K. Gray (Jim) of Fort Collins, CO. Known as "Gammy" to her grandchildren, Kay is survived by Christy Fagerlin (Richard), Julia DeMarco and David DeMarco; and four great-grandchildren, Bella, Christian, Preston and Jackson. After many years of traveling in the military with her husband, Col. Chaplain John M. Hughes, Kay lived the remainder of her life in Tucson. She taught second and third grade at Kellond Elementary School in Tucson School District 1 for nearly 30 years. She was an active member of the Military Widows club at Davis-Monthan AFB and faithfully volunteered at the hospital there for many years. Kay enjoyed bridge, gardening, traveling with her friends, and reading to the blind over the radio. Kay shared many stories and memories with her family and friends. She was loved and will be missed. At Kay's request, no memorial services will be held other than the thoughts and memories in our hearts.