Dear Mrs. Schreiner,

Thanks for giving me a chance to make a small contribution to the History of your school. District 39 was the scene of my first adventures in the teaching profession and of course, has often been in my thoughts through the years. I think I probably learned more the year I spent in Pierce County than I taught my students.

For the past three weeks my children and I have been visiting parents, grandparents, and other relatives here at Macy. Since we weren't at home, I had to do some real
