

1963

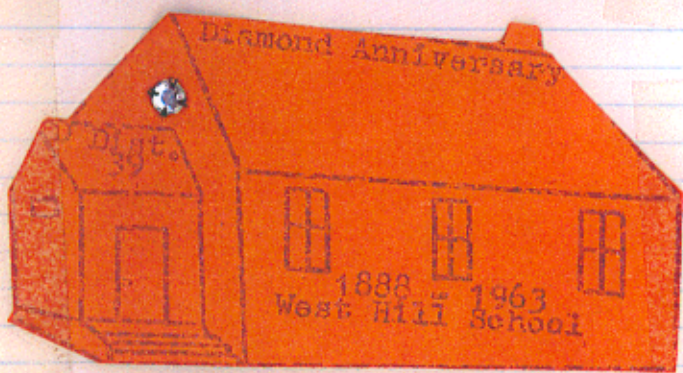

Guests were given a miniature schoolhouse when they registered if they were a part of the district's history.

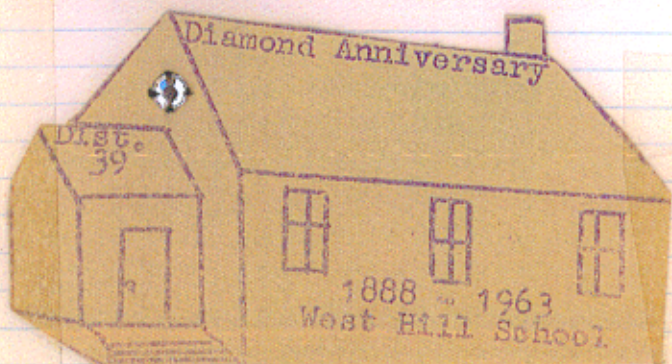

Former students received a yellow schoolhouse, as did the present students.

Former teachers received a corsage and a blue schoolhouse.

The county superintendents received an orange schoolhouse with their name on it.

Former residents received a green schoolhouse.