

sixth grades and the saddest day was on February 24th when we moved away from your community to a farm west of Pierce. I remember it well because it was my birthday and my teacher Irene Daws and my schoolmates had a combination birthday and farewell party for me and my sister Rosilyn. I know I shed many tears because I didn't want to leave.

I finished my grade school days in Dist. #14, then attended Hauss High School my Freshman and Sophomore years and my Junior and Senior years at Pierce High where I graduated in 1939.

Following my graduation I taught in rural schools Dist. #7, Dist. #20 and Dist. #68 for 5 years and for eight months I worked in the A.S.C. Office in Pierce.

On September 26, 1946 I married Dale Breyer of Naper, Nebraska. He
