RECORD BOOK
of
TRINITY CHURCHYARD
WOODBIDGE, N. J.

The letters and numbers opposite the names in this book refer to the location of Graves on the accompanying Map of Trinity Church Yard.

A cross (†) before the letter and number denotes that the grave is marked with a headstone or otherwise.

NOTE- I have made a copy of the Record Book and supplemented it by a list of additional stones now standing in the yard.

Where letters appear with no number following- this indicates the additional stones.

The cemetery, according to record and map is divided into five sections:-A-B-C-D-E., and the record is not complete for the record book was compiled about twenty five years ago.

The old church records were destroyed by fire some years ago, and the present church records begin about 1840 or thereabouts, and also contain additional notes of deceased members.

The Church and Cemetery is located on the East side of Rahway Ave., ( in olden days called , The Lower Road to Rahway), adjoining Trinity Lane and opposite the Presbyterian Church and Cemetery.

See Dally's History of Woodbridge, for account of the Church and its history.
