APPENDIX.

I.

THE lands west of the Raritan lots, extending back to the Millstone river, and as far up said river as Rocky Hill, (taking in nearly all of Franklin township, and a strip in addition on the south of the Six Mile Run Turnpike,) were originally divided into four large plots, which may be in general thus described: The plot of Daniel Cox began at the north-west corner of Inians's two plots, near the Two Mile Run Tavern; thence in a straight line south-west five miles, to a point a mile and a quarter south of Six Mile Run church; thence west-south-west three and one tenth miles to the road leading from Ten Mile Run to Little Rocky Hill, being to a point on said road about one mile directly south of Ten Mile Run; thence in a straight line north-north-east eight miles and thirty chains, striking and following what is known as the Middlebush road, (which is a remnant of this eight-mile line,) to a point on the Raritan lots, (either Jenes's or Clement's lot, and now the farm of J. V. L. Van Doren,) and thence along the rear of the Raritan lots two and a half miles, plus ten chains, to the point of beginning, containing 7540 acres. (Amboy Records, Lib. G, p. 314; also, Lib. E, p. 365.) The proprietors sold this tract to one of their fellow proprietors, Daniel Cox, of London, September 1st, 1694. Signed Andrew Hamilton, David Mudie, Andrew Bowne, James Dundas, L. Morris, John Inians, Thomas Warne, George Willocks, Thomas Gordon, John Reid, John Barclay.

The second plot begins at a point on Millstone River, opposite Rocky Hill, and runs east-south-east two miles, minus twelve chains, to the southern end of the eight-mile line before alluded to; thence along said line three miles, minus six chains, and thence west-north-west two miles, to the Millstone River, where the Ten Mile Run brook empties into the same; thence up the Millstone to the place of beginning, containing 5000 acres. John Harrison and George Willocks bought this tract, as well as the adjoining tract, of Daniel Cox, already described, in the year 1700. (Amboy Records, Lib. E, p. 365.)

The third plot, bought by the same parties, begins at the mouth of Ten Mile Run brook, and runs two miles south-easterly to the eight-mile line (or the Middlebush road;) thence along said line four miles and a half, minus six chains, to a point half a mile north-east of Middlebush church, and thence west-north-west three miles and eight chains to the Millstone river, at the mouth of a little brook called Leding brook, (this is one or other of the small streams within a mile south of East-Millstone;) the fourth plot lying north of the last, and between it and the Raritan lots, (now known as the Cedar Grove District,) appears to have been taken possession of by William Dockwra, who owned neighboring lands on the Raritan and Millstone. At any rate, a portion of this land, sold by Richard Salter (Dockwra's agent) to Christian Van Doren, in 1723, had to be repurchased as late as 1760, upon the representation that Salter had no right to sell it. There were several conflicting claims to this portion of Franklin township. (See Millstone Centennial, pp. 13, 14, 16, 19, and 21.)

MEMBERS OF THIS CHURCH WHO HAVE ENTERED THE GOS-PEL MINISTRY.

THE following members who united with this church by profession of their faith, have gone forth to preach the Gospel. I include the names of the five sons of Mr. Frelinghuysen and the two sons of Mr. Leydt; though they do not appear among our members. But they stand on our register of baptisms, and as this was their home, it is a natural inference that they here united with the church by profession. I omit a list of about the same number who were members by certificate :

INSCRIPTION ON THE MONUMENT ERECTED TO THE MEMORY OF REV. JOHN H
LIVINGSTON, D.D.

SACRED to the memory of the Rev. John H. Livingston, D.D., S.T.P. Born at Poughkeepsie, State of New-York, May 30th, 1746; educated for the ministry at the University of Utrecht, in Holland; called to the pastoral office of the Reformed Dutch Church, in New-York, in 1770; appointed by the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church in America, their professor in didactic and polemic theology, in 1781, and elected to the presidency of Queen's College, New-Jersey, in 1810. There, in performance of the duties of his office, and blessed in the enjoyment of mental energy, high reputation, and distinguished usefulness, he suddenly but sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, January 20th, 1825, in the seventy-ninth year of his age, the fifty-fifth of his ministry, and the forty-first of his professional labors. In him, with dignified appearance, extensive erudition, almost unrivaled talents, as a sacred orator and professor, were blended manners polished, candid, and attractive, all ennobled by that entire devotion to his Saviour which became such a servant to yield to such a Master. In token of their gratitude for his services, and veneration for his memory, the General Synod have ordered this monumental stone to be erected.

INSCRIPTION ON THE MONUMENT ERECTED TO THE MEMORY OF REV. JOHN SCHUREMAN, D.D.

BENEATH this stone are deposited the remains of Rev. John Schureman, D.D., professor of pastoral theology, ecclesiastical history, and church government, in the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Dutch Church, at New-Brunswick; who, while engaged in a course of active and highly useful labors, enjoying the confidence of the churches and the affections of his brethren, departed this life, May 15th 1818, in the fortieth year of his age.
