State of Ohio Pickaway County.

On this 2nd day of October A.D. 1832 personally appeared in open court before the Hon. Frederick Grinke, President and the Hon. David Finney, Hercules Menick, and Samuel Lybrand, a Associate Judges of the court of Common Pleas of said county now sitting, The Rev. John O. C. Smith, a resident in said county of Pickaway, aged seventy one years last December, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

That in the year 1776 he thinks (though he is not certain as to the year) some time in the month of May he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer in the company commanded by Lieutenant Benjamin Warner. Applicant then lived in Mansfield Township Sussex county New Jersey. We were marched to Minimisick to Col. Rosencrantz where we made our headquarters and were employed in scouting parties against the Indians. Major Fitch I think last ~~commanded~~ as Major. Applicant was at that time full six months in the service. Applicant further states that in the spring of the year 1779 as near as he can recollect he enlisted for nine months by the name of John Smith in the service of the United States and served his tour at that time in what was called Sullivan's campaign. He enlisted under Captain Powell Shipman. Col. William Buel commanded the regiment and Gen. Sullivan the division. We rendezvoused at Boston or near Boston to Wyoming thence from place to place of the year 1779 at least as he can be by the name of John Smith in the service of the United States and served his time at that time in what was called Sullivan's campaign. He enlisted under Captain Powell Shipman. Col. William Brail commanded the regiment and Gen. Sullivan the division. We rendezvoused at Roston or Rastown - marched from Roston to Wyoming thence from place to place to George's point - after some weeks at Goga we were marched to Cheering-St. Cheering we had something of an engagement with the enemy, principally Indians, we were at divers places on the frontiers, and were marched back to Roston and there at the expiration of the time <sup>the</sup> applicant was discharged, which discharge he has long since lost. Applicant was born in Oxford Township Sussex County N. C. in Dec. 1760 or he believes but has no record of his age. Applicant lived in New Jersey some time after the revolutionary war, then moved into Maryland, then into Virginia, and has lived in this state about 21 <sup>years</sup> in Potomac County, and now lives in Madant Township in this county. Applicant knows of no person living by whom he can prove his first six months service. Charles Doyca of Madant Township in this county, and Samuel White of Franklin County, Ohio, know something of the service of this applicant last above stated but it is not in the power of Applicant to bring said White into this Court to testify concerning the same.

Applicant hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State to his knowledge. John or Smith

At the same time came Charles Daryea and made the following statement under oath, to wit:

I, Charles Daryea residing in Walnut Township Pickaway County Ohio hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the Rev. John O. C. Smith, who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration and believe him to be of the age he has above represented himself to be, that I was acquainted with him in the State of New Jersey in Sussex County in the Revolutionary war and know him to perform some services in the militia during that war, also know him to exist for nine months in the army of the United States in the year 1779 as near as I recollect know of his going out on that tour and saw him when returning home at the expiration of said nine months and believe that he is a man of truth and that his whole statement is entitled to credit.
