Dear Aunt.

I have
very bad news for you, Aunt Mel. Grandpa died
May 19 at ten o'clock on Friday. He had been sick only a little over a week, he was unconscious for about two days he was under the influence of morphine
for about three days
and of course didn't know anything but
the last two days, we didn't give him any mor phine, and he lost conscience and remained that way until the end. he died very easily One day he started up in his bed and opened his eyes real wide and looked over toward the west and said "yes;

Sammy I see you."
That was the last he ever said, We laid him away real nicely. The old soldiers conducted the services at the grave after the services at the church here. It seems awfully lonesome and old without him. We miss him very much
