

Chester and Elizabeth Robinson in 1960.

Chester was married to a local schoolteacher September 3, 1926, Martha Elizabeth Fitzgerald, and they lived on his homestead, the first year. Elizabeth rode horseback to a school on Upper Middle Prong of Wild Horse Creek. She taught two girls of Claude Reed's and two small boys of Glenn Fitch's. She had filed on a homestead east of the Ike Roger's place on Upper Middle Prong of Wild Horse Creek. They both filed on and proved up on their homesteads.

George Chester, Jr. was born on August 22, 1927 at Sheridan, Wyoming. In August of 1930 they moved to Sheridan permanently and Chester started to work at Fort McKenzie.

Shirley Ann was born to them August 15, 1932 and Oren Menagh on January 23, 1938.

In 1951, Chester retired on a disability from Fort McKenzie and a year later underwent back surgery. His health improved somewhat and he invested in Rawleigh Products which he sold over Sheridan County for twenty years, or more. Chester sold their home a few years ago and moved into Sheridan, to retire.

CHESTER and ELIZABETH ROBINSON CHILDREN

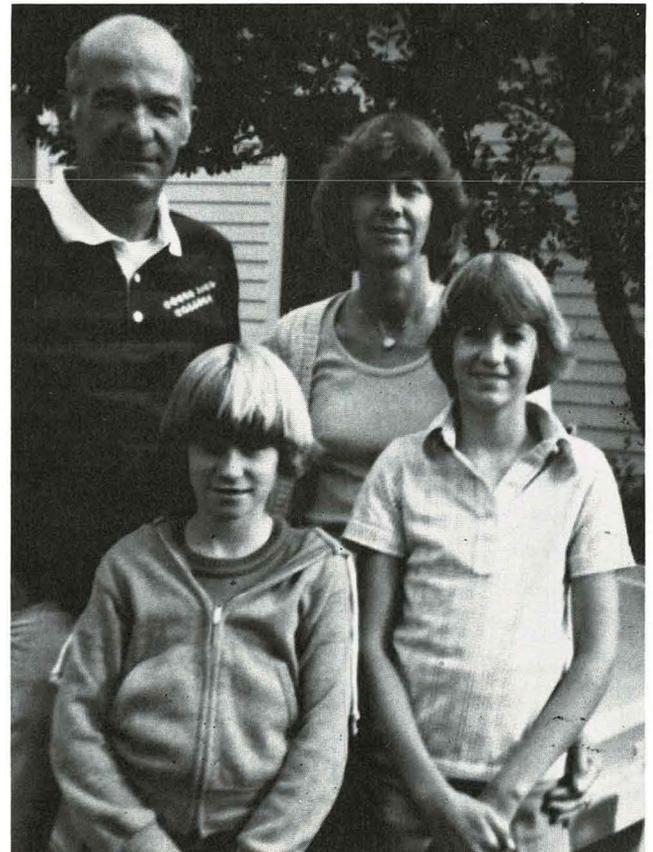

by Velma Drake

George, Jr. was born at Sheridan, Wyoming August 22, 1927. He joined the Navy and later after being discharged married Helen Pleasants on September 21, 1946. They had two children: Barry Michael and Connie June. In 1958 they were divorced. George remarried to Patricia Mitchell on April 4, 1959 and they have two sons: Michael Bruce and Patrick James. George Jr. is owner of Pleasants Electric Commercial Refrigeration. Barry lives in Billings, Montana and was married and divorced and has one son, Tom. Connie is an accomplished artist and works for the Forest Service. Mike and Pat are attending College.

Shirley Ann Robinson was born August 15, 1932 at Sheridan, Wyoming. She worked in Sheridan, for a time, later going to New York and did some modeling. Shirley then, took intensive training to be a Stewardess George Chester Robinson, Jr.

Shirley and Egon Ellgaard with Renee and Annette.